Are you a visionary and a creative person, and ready to take the challenge?

Executive Director of InM

Institute of Microfinance (InM), Bangladesh is a non-profit organization established for meeting research and training needs of national as well as global microcredit programmes. Currently funded by UK's Department For International Development (DFID) through its PROSPER programme, InM aims to emerge as a center of excellence in the areas of microfinance, enterprise development, and poverty reduction at the national and international levels.

InM Board will now appoint a new visionary and a creative person to lead the Institute following the departure of InM's first Executive Director. The ideal candidate must have a relevant doctorate degree, a strong background in institution building, excellent knowledge of research, training and development issues, and some exposure to microfinance sector.

Initial contract duration can be negotiated. Salary and other benefits will be competitive in Bangladesh, negotiable. Application with a full Curriculum Vitae, a one page statement on the suitability of candidature and date of availability must reach recruitment@inm.org.bd with the title of the position applying for by 28 February 2010. Visit www.inm.org.bd and www.prosperprogram.org to know about InM and the programme in general. The job description is available on the InM website.
