Position Vacancy Announcement

The United States Agency for International Development/Bangladesh (USAID) invites applications from Bangladeshi nationals for the position of Senior Education Advisor for its Office of Democracy, Governance and Education (DG-ED).

The Education Advisor will serve as the Education Team Leader after a minimal mentoring period. The Education Advisor works in a collaborative manner with the Mission's five-person Education Team and has the primary responsibility for the technical direction of USAID/Bangladesh's $4 million to $6 million per year education portfolio, within the Office of Democracy, Governance and Education. The Education Advisor provides technical direction for the Education portion of Mission's Strategic Objective (SO) for 'a healthier, better educated and more productive population' under the guidance of the DG-ED Office Director and the SO Team Leader. The Education Advisor provides expert input into the overall education program, especially from the perspective of advising on Bangladeshi education agencies, as well as problems, opportunities, and issues. S/he plays an important role in contributing to strategy deliberations and activity management. S/he participates in design and implementation of substantial activities within the program (such as new innovative tools for participatory, democratic learning and education leadership development and specific activities related to combating corruption). S/he participates in team and mission recommendations leading to grant and contract awards in the education sector. Upon receiving certification shortly after hire, s/he will also advise the Contracts and Agreement Officer on the management of the Mission's current activities in early childhood development. The Education Advisor will also take on supervisory responsibilities for two Bangladeshi national team members. Other members of the core Education Team include the Education Project Assistant, the Mission's Human Capacity Development Specialist, the DG-ED Administrative Assistant, and the current Education Team Leader.

Required Qualifications:

The applicant should be a Bangladeshi national. The applicant must be able to pass security clearance and health screening for fitness to work. Women and minorities are encouraged to apply. USAID is an equal opportunity employer.

1. Education: A Masters Degree in education, languages, child psychology, or other related discipline is required.

2. Language Proficiency: Excellent communications skills, reading, writing and speaking abilities in Bangla and English required.

3. Prior Work Experience: A minimum of five to seven years of progressively responsible experience at senior professional or management levels in a leading government, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), or the private sector required. Experience in policy and strategy development, and program design in multi-faceted development programs is required with a strong emphasis on the education sector. Experience is preferred in independently managing an organization or program involved in innovative education development.

4. Knowledge: Recognized expertise in education is required, as well as knowledge of related development sectors. In-depth knowledge on a broad range of issues about analyzing and reforming learning systems and policies on such areas as curriculum development, teacher development, learning assessment, education leadership models, participatory and child centered learning, learning theory research, applied learning, education equity, and democratic learning methods. In-depth knowledge of strategies, programs, and working methodologies in the education sector in Bangladesh is required. Knowledge of other donor programs in the Bangladeshi education sector is desired. Broad contacts among Bangladesh education agencies, civil society, NGOs, and government will be considered favorably.

5. Skills and Abilities: Expert interpersonal and teamwork skills are required. Highly developed program design, implementation, monitoring, and evaluation skills are required. The capacity to communicate complicated policy, strategy, and program issues orally and in writing is required. Can handle sensitive issues diplomatically and use good judgment in speaking on behalf of USAID. Has good organization and management skills. Can demonstrate knowledge of gender and development principles and experience in their application. Must be proficient in word processing software, especially in Microsoft Word, Excel and PowerPoint.

Interested applicants must submit a resume along with a recent photograph and a one-page cover letter stating his/her motivation, level of education, relevant experience and other qualifications for this position. Please submit to the Human Resources Section, GPO Box 2593, Ramna, Dhaka-1000, no later than August 20, 2006. Applications received beyond the date specified will not be considered. Only short-listed candidates will be notified.
