Asian stocks mostly lower

AFP, Hong Kong

Stocks in Asia were mixed on Tuesday amid gloom over European debt after Wall Street failed to provide any inspiration despite an initial bounce on news that Osama bin Laden was dead.

Sydney closed 0.84 percent down, Seoul dropped 1.27 percent. Shanghai was up 0.71 percent and Hong Kong lost 0.37 percent.

Tokyo was closed for the first day of a three-day holiday.

Hong Kong had spent much of the day in positive territory before dropping in the last hour of trading to close at 23,633.25, down 87.56 points.

Chinese shares reversed early losses as concerns over further tightening measures eased with data showing manufacturing growth slowed in April, dealers said.

The Shanghai Composite Index, which covers both A and B shares, ended 20.68 points higher at 2,932.19 on turnover of 102.7 billion yuan ($15.8 billion).

Stocks in Sydney fell, with a strong Australian dollar weighing on sentiment over upcoming corporate earnings results.

The benchmark S&P/ASX 200 was down 40.7 points at 4,784.6.

The Australian unit weakened to $1.0904 after having surged through the $1.10 mark on Monday.

One euro bought US$1.4817 in afternoon Asian trade compared to $1.4824 in New York on Monday.

Both currencies weakened against the yen, with the euro trading at 119.86 yen from 120.30 a day ago and the greenback changing hands at 81.00 yen from 81.10.

Oil eased in Asia as traders digested news of bin Laden's death, but analysts warned prices will be tied to unrest in the Arab world and the dollar's value in the long run.

New York's main contract, light sweet crude for June delivery, was down 50 cents to $113.02 and Brent North Sea crude for June eased 42 cents to $124.70.

Gold closed in Hong Kong at $1,542.50-$1,543.50, sharply down from the peak of $1,577.57 it hit in New York trade on Monday.

In other markets:

Singapore closed 0.83 percent, or 26.29 points, lower at 3,153.57. Bangkok fell 2.12 percent or 23.13 points to 1,070.43.

Mumbai fell 2.44 percent after the central bank hiked interest rates 50 basis points. The benchmark 30-share Sensex index ended down 463.33 points at 18,534.69.

APOLLO HOSPITALS

Apollo Hospitals Dhaka has recently signed a corporate agreement with GMG Airlines to provide priority corporate benefits and medical services for the employees and their dependants of the airline. Michael S Potter, chief executive officer of Apollo Hospitals Dhaka, and Shoeb Al Ashraf, director for human resources of GMG, signed the deal at a programme in the capital.

Pfizer Q1 income up

AFP, New York

US drugmaker Pfizer said Tuesday that first quarter earnings jumped 10 percent despite a 13 percent fall in sales of its best-selling anti-cholesterol drug Lipitor.

Net earnings at the world's biggest pharmaceuticals company grew to $2.22 billion for the January-March period, from $2.01 billion in the same period in 2010.

Revenues were $16.50 billion, down from $16.58
