N'GANJ 7-MURDER

Case filed for trying to 'poison' public prosecutor's daughter

OUR CORRESPONDENT, N'ganj

A case has been filed in connection with the attempt to poison daughter of Advocate Wazed Ali Khokon, the public prosecutor in Narayanganj seven-murder case.

Selina Wazed Minu, Wazed's wife, filed the case with Narayanganj Sadar Model Police Station yesterday. Four unidentified persons were accused in the case for attempting to poison Maisha Wazed Prapti on her way home from a coaching centre on Bangabandhu Road in Narayanganj on Wednesday.

Officer-in-Charge (OC) Shahin Parvez said a case has been filed. They are trying to identify the accused persons and arrest them, he said.

Prapti's father Wazed Ali Khokon represented the state in the sensational seven-murder case, in which the High Court on Tuesday upheld death sentences of 15, including former Rab officer Tarek Sayeed and former Narayanganj councillor Nur Hossain.

Yesterday afternoon, Wazed, his wife and daughter met journalists at their home, where the PP said the verdicts, handed down by the lower and high court, satisfied everyone.

However, any third party might have been aggrieved by the verdict, he added.

To take revenge, someone might have attempted to poison his daughter, said the PP, adding, "We are worried."

Locals, transport workers and activists of Bangladesh Awami League form a human chain on Kumargaon-Airport road in Sylhet Sadar upazila demanding that the authorities concerned repair it on an emergency basis. According to them, the road has been in a dilapidated condition for years. Riddled with potholes, this important road connects several unions and is used by thousands of vehicles. But the poor condition of the road continues to cause accidents and traffic congestion. PHOTO: STAR

A member of the ASK team, Mita Rani Dey, told this correspondent that at least three miscreants have brutally beaten up and violated the victim.

"She still has internal bleeding. We believe that the claim of the violation and brutal torture is not false," she said.

Bijoy Chandra Basak, superintendent of police in Barguna, did not wish to make any comment over a "judicial matter" as the victim and her husband had already given their statements to a magistrate.

Betagi Police Station Officer-in-Charge Mamunur Rahman said they so far arrested four including two accused in the case and they were launching drives to arrest the other accused.

One of the accused -- Mehedi Hasan alias Rabiul, 18, son of Sultan Hossain of Kadamtala village in Hosnabad union -- was arrested on August 20, while another accused Jewel, 30, on August 22. Two other people -- Abdul Hakim Hawlader, 45, and Kuddus Kazi, 42, of Kadomtala village -- were arrested for helping the assailants flee the crime scene.

On August 17, the female teacher was finishing up administrative work afterhours on the first floor of the school while her husband was keeping her company. The main entrance downstairs was locked at the time as all students, teachers and staff had left the building.

According to the case filed the same night, six people -- Sumon Biswas, 35, Mohammad Rasel, 24, Sumon Kazi, 30, Mohammad Robiul, 18, Mohammad Hasan, 25, and Jewel, 30 -- climbed up and entered the classroom where the teacher was working. They beat up the couple and raped her while confining the husband to another classroom.

High time for building

The like-minded political parties and people from different professions including student, teacher, lawyer, doctor, freedom fighter, businessman, retired government and non-government official would form a large alternative political platform, responding to the call before the next general election, they said.

They said the people's dream of gaining independence, sovereignty, and democracy was implemented through the Liberation War. "But the people want full implementation of the dream. The people who believe in the dream will have to come forward to build a country free from poverty, corruption, and violence."

The new political force will be meant for building such a country, the statement said.

SC asks CMM to return

M Monjur Alam, a lawyer for Manna, told The Daily Star that the SC on November 28 last year granted bail to Manna in two criminal cases on a condition that he will submit his passport to the CMM. As per the SC's directive, Manna submitted his passport to the CMM on December 18, last year, he said.

Manna was released on bail on December 18 last year after spending nearly two years in prison over sedition and criminal charges.

Advocate Idrisur Rahman appeared for Manna, while Attorney General Mahbubey Alam represented the government.

NU postpones exams of degree, honours due to flood

BSS, Dhaka

The authorities have postponed examinations of degree (pass course) for academic year of 2015 and fourth years of honours for academic year of 2016 due to flood.

The examinations of both degree pass course and honours, scheduled to be held from August 26 to 29, 2017 have been postponed, an NU press release said.

Fresh dates will be announced later, the release also said.

Rabin Dey passes away

STAFF CORRESPONDENT, Ctg

Rabin Dey, vice president of Chittagong city unit of Bangladesh Udichi Shilpigosthi, died from a cardiac arrest at his Nondankanon residence in the city on Wednesday night. He was 67.

He left behind his wife, a son and a host of relatives and well-wishers.

In his student life, Rabin was involved in Bangladesh Chhatra Union and, later, in the Communist Party of Bangladesh. Besides, he worked for Khelaghar.

Representatives from different socio-cultural and political organisations, artistes and prominent personalities paid their last respect to him at Central Shaheed Minar in Chittagong yesterday.

Later, the body was cremated at Baluar Dighi crematorium, Udichi sources said.

His family members have requested all relatives, friends and well-wishers to join the ceremony, said a press release.

Tanmoy died at his residence in Goran area on August 13 at the age of 30. He had been suffering from thalassemia for a long time.

CJ's 'resignation', 'removal' dominate

Supreme Court Bar Association's south hall demanding expunction of "irrelevant" observations from the SC verdict.

"Our next movement will be based on a one-point demand. He [CJ] has not expunged his irrelevant comments and has violated his oath by this time. He cannot hold this post for violating the oath. Showing such audacity by a justice during judicial proceedings to disqualify another constitutional post holder is not only a violation of oath, but also is similar to sedition," he said.

Presided over by BAAP convener Advocate Yusuf Hossain Humayun, the meeting was addressed by its leaders Advocate Nurul Islam Sujan and Advocate SM Rezaul Karim.

After BAAP, AL's youth women's wing Awami Jubo Mahila League and associated student organisation Bangladesh Chhatra League (BCL) yesterday staged demonstration against Chief Justice SK Sinha for some of his observations in the verdict.

Jubo Mahila League formed a human chain in front of Jatiya Press Club demanding expungement of CJ's comments against the country, while a faction of BCL of Chittagong University unit organised a human chain on the university campus demanding removal of the chief justice.

The two organisations took to the street after AL president Sheikh Hasina on August 21 said the chief justice should have resigned before making any comment on the election process of the women lawmakers or after delivering the verdict.

Passed in 2014, the 16th amendment to the constitution had restored parliament's powers to remove SC judges for misconduct or incapacity. Last year, the High Court declared the amendment illegal and the decision was upheld by the SC on July 3 this year. The full verdict came on August 1.

Archrivals AL and BNP took no time to react -- the former slamming parts of the verdict, and the latter praising it.

AMU WARNS CJ

Addressing the Jubo Mohila League's programme, Industries Minister Amir Hossain Amu warned the "people" would "come forward" if the observations made in the 16th amendment were not expunged.

"The remarks you [chief justice] have made in the...verdict against the country must be expunged," said Amu, also an advisory council member of the ruling party.

Jubo Mahila League organised the programme in protest against what they said "derogatory remarks made against women MPs in the 16th amendment verdict."

Amu said, "You [CJ] should have thought before taking stance against the parliament that appointed you. The president of this parliament has appointed you."

Referring to other judges of the apex court, Amu said, "You should remember that he [Sinha] wants to take all the charge in the judiciary, and we will have to follow whatever he would say. All the powers would be vested in him and there would be nothing beyond that. We can't allow such a system in the judiciary at all."

He blamed the chief justice for "his attempt to grab all the state powers" and warned, "There must be a limit of such audacity."

TERMED CORRUPT

Branding Chief Justice SK Sinha as "corrupt", a faction of BCL's CU unit yesterday demanded his removal.

They formed a human chain on CU Central Shaheed Minar premises around 2:00pm under the banner of "Jagoron Ostitto Ekattor".

The BCL men strongly criticised the CJ for what they claimed "irrelevant and objectionable observations" in the verdict in the 16th amendment case.

They said the judges were "misusing power in the name of judiciary's independence" and urged the government to bring them to book.

'CJ SHOULD RESIGN WILLINGLY'

Addressing a press briefing at his secretariat office on the 16th amendment verdict, Information Minister Hasanul Haque Inu yesterday said the chief justice should resign voluntarily to regain the judiciary's image which he made controversial through making "unwanted comments", reports UNB.

"The chief justice has stirred a controversy through his unwanted remarks and has made both the judiciary's image and himself controversial. I urge him to think whether he would resign willingly to end the controversy and regain the judiciary's image," he said.

Terming the verdict "unacceptable", he said the verdict should be reviewed.

As per Article 97 of the constitution, he said, the president could also play a role in this regard. "We'll take our next step after discussions on the verdict in parliament."

"We've been examining how the verdict could be reviewed following legal process expunging all the irrelevant observations," he said.

"The verdict, however, has not created any political or constitutional crisis. Neither did it put the executive and the judiciary in a face-off situation, nor it would affect the government."

AL leaders, including its president and also Prime Minister Sheikh Hasina, have just responded to the "irrelevant" observations of the chief justice, he said.

Article 97 says, "If the office of the Chief Justice becomes vacant, or if the President is satisfied that the Chief Justice is, on account of absence, illness, or any other cause, unable to perform the functions of his office, those functions shall, until some other person has entered upon that office, or until the Chief Justice has resumed his duties, as the case may be, be performed by the next most senior Judge of the Appellate Division."

Meanwhile, pro-BNP lawyers' platform Jatiyatabadi Ainjibi Forum held a meeting at SCBA's north hall, demanding resignation and arrest of Law Commission Chairman Justice ABM Khairul Haque for "breaching the code of conduct" by holding a press conference on the SC verdict.
