Pantene and Head & Shoulders "You Got the Look 2003"

NAFID IMRAN AHMED

THE four young men and women dazzled a capacity crowd on Thursday with a rare blend of beauty and intellect to run away with the awards.

Yes, the much-vaunted grand beauty pageant "You Got the Look 2003" at Winter Garden of Dhaka Sheraton provided a perfect evening for those aspiring to walk into the world of beauty and, of course, glamour.

This time around, 20 men and women were in the fray for Best Look and Best Hair awards. Perky Najia Jarin and handsome Tariq Ahmad walked away with the Best Look awards while Rezwana Karim and Shafayet Hossain pulled off the Best Hair awards.

"This is simply unbelievable. At first I was extremely nervous," said an ecstatic Najia, after winning the Best Look for female award. Tariq, winner of the Best Look for male award, said, "After winning the title I am seriously thinking of taking up modelling as a profession."

The dark and straight hair fetched Rezwana the Best Hair female award. Giving her immediate reaction after winning the award, an elated Rezwana said, "I am so happy. I always treasured my hair."

Evan snatched the Best Hair for male award with his shiny hair. The award did a world of good to his confidence. "Now, I am keen about pursuing a modelling career. This award came to me as a windfall."

The contestants went through four routines on the evening to display their look and the presence of mind. The 20 men and women set the ramp alight with the exquisite fashion collection by such young and innovative designers as Fashion Institute of Design, Cheque, Shahjada Shaheen Khan, Shuful of Almira and Shahruckh Amin.

The programme started with a welcome speech by Ashok Singhania, business development manager, Procter and Gamble, International Operations, Singapore.

"We believe in providing opportunity to people. It's how a silk worm turns into a butterfly. These participants are like silk worms and we want to turn them into really special people."

In the first queue, the female participants wore evening gowns and the men suits. Each participant was introduced to the audience in this round. Noted singer Mehreen's 'Feeling Hot Hot' and Kaniz Shuborna's 'Hero' added grandeur to the show.

The next round themed 'Butterfly Fusion' was about the designers' creativity in blending colours and it enthralled the audience. Video footage 'In the making' of "You Got the Look 2003" reflected all the hard work behind the scenes.

Girl band 'Angles' performed 'Joto Dure Harao' next. The audience appreciated Nafisa, Kona and Romana's lively performance.

Next, the participants wore salwar kameez and punjabi. The participants were then short listed and 10 men and women were screened through to the final round.

'Heritage' is what they called the final round, where the intellect of the participants was tested for the final results.

The compere duo Fima and Omar was impeccable providing relief and occasional comic while hosting the show.

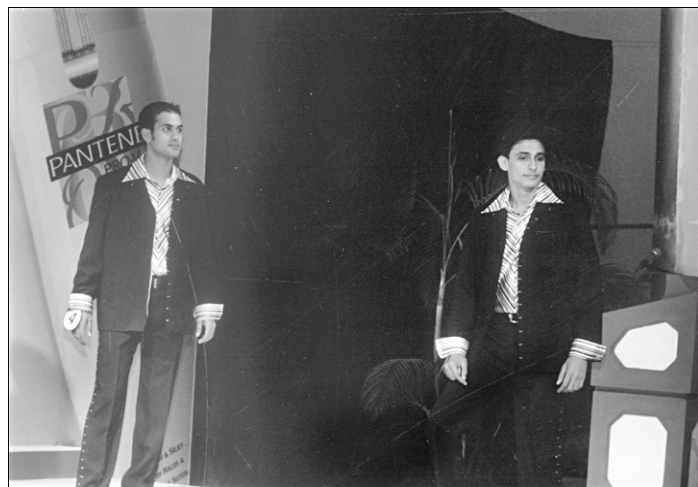

The panel of judges comprising Motiur Rahman, editor of the daily Pratham Alo, Syed Fahim Munaim, managing editor of The Daily Star, Ashok Singhania, Kaniz Almas, beautician, Persona and Shampa Reza, singer and actress.

Beauty pageantry has come a long way with Pantene and Head & Shoulders "You Got the Look" in Bangladesh. For the last two years this pageantry has provided a fantastic platform to plant confidence in young men and women and find out the hidden talents.

Gracefully on the ramp

The show proved to be a confidence booster for the participants

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

STAR MOVIES: 11:00p.m. Spitfire. A pre-story sequence with Lance Henriksen as a super-spy and an opening credits obviously ripping off the James Bond themes gives hope for a spy story or spoof in the Bond mode. However, the story quickly opens with former USA gymnastics champion Kristie Phillips in the lead role as the town's mayor who finally relents when nothing else seems to work and the chief, a scientist, and an old fisherman with revenge on his mind take to the sea to kill the beast.

AXN: 9:30p.m. Jaws. A Great White Shark decides to make the small beach resort town of Amity his private feeding grounds. This greatly frustrates the town police chief who wants to close the beaches to chase the shark away. He is thwarted in his efforts by the town's mayor who finally relents when nothing else seems to work and the chief, a scientist, and an old fisherman with revenge on his mind take to the sea to kill the beast.
