FAYZA HAQ

AHMUDUL Haque who has recently had his solo

exhibition at the Bengal

Gallery says that he does not consider his paintings as abstract. He says, "All the subject matter is realistic although it may appear abstract to some of the viewers. I take my inspiration from my surroundings, nature, people and life around me, and the things I like and dislike. I have reached this stage after a lot of experimentation and experience. I have not reached this stage suddenly today. I have come through a process. At one time I used to do realistic paintings

then I progressed to the semi realistic and today I am going towards what appears like abstraction. No picture can duplicate the real man

Scenic Kuakata

Solo photography exhibition at the BPS gallery focuses on Kuakata's potentiality of becoming an important tourist spot in the country

CULTURE DESK

Exhibition

HOTOJOURNALIST Kamrul Hossain brings out the immense possibilities of Kuakata as another tourist spot of international standard through his photographs. The only sea-beach in the country where both sunrise and sunset can be viewed, Kuakata has already gained public attention. But as it very often occurs in Bangladesh, almost no measures have been observed so far, on the part of any government, regarding the development of the place.

Kamrul Hossain points through his photos at this callousness and endeavours to raise a campaign in favour of the possibilities of Kuakata. He is holding a monthlong solo exhibition on the second important sea-beach of the country at the gallery of Bangladesh Photographic Society.

An assemblage of twenty-five colour photographs mounted at the exhibition present the scenic beauty of Kuakata. Most of the pictures of course focus on the sunrise and sunset beyond the Bay of Bengal, which is the real attraction of the place. The images of the sunrise and sunset from various angles with the imposition of light and shade truly sketch Kuakata as the abode of natural beauty and its mystic appeal to the senses.

Apart from this Kamrul also captures through his lens the Kamrul says that our tourist points can contribute greatly to the nation's strive towards becoming economically independent. And Kuakata seems to him as one of the most promising places. A few residential hotels and restaurants have already come up, where the cost of both fooding and lodging facilities is comparatively cheap. Moreover, there are agencies that arrange package tours from

The exhibition reveals the patriotic intent of Kamrul Hossain as a photographer. On the other hand it unfolds the possibilities of the natural resources of the country that might well serve in building an economically prosperous nation.

The exhibition is open up to March 31 from 10 am to 8 pm.

there has been solo in the country.

Mahmudul Haque says, "Apart from Mohammed Kibria, my teacher, there are many other artists of the past who are always in my mind. This includes Van Gogh, Picasso and Braque when I am breaking forms. Old masters like Rembrandt too have an enormous impact on me when I am playing with light and shade. Having learnt from artists of the past I want to create something new of my own."

He adds, "I have spent five years in Japan and have learnt print making there. There are many elements of print making that I have introduced into my painting and some aspects of painting that I have taken to may prints. In Japan I have learnt to use the middle colours so that I did not use the hues directly but mixed them together. I've then been to USA but I was there only a few months and of them some works attracted me such as the exhibition of Jackson Pollock and his action paintings which have influenced some of my brush strokes. When I went to Denmark France and Germany I worked there too and visited the museums and I think I've seen all except for the Hermitage. I do not plan my works and the influences that come into my work come subconsciously.

He says that in his paintings he expresses himself, his feelings and his environment. Critiques say that he has searched for a point of reconciliation between geometrical forms, new impressions and indigenous art. It was in botanical motifs that Haque found most useful in his creation of a lyrical visual language." The spirit of Zen and the mysticism of the orient is always at the heart of his canvas. But he also draws his inspiration from the indigenous art of Bangladesh. The analytic quality of printmaking and the emotive aspects of painting come together in his canvas in a visually stimulating way.'

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

Collector. Quadripeligic ex-cop Lincoln Rhyme was looking forward to his assisted suicide when he got the news: some sicko was abducting people in a taxi and leaving them to die in particularly sadistic ways. With time counting down between each abduction and possible death, Rhyme recruits rather-unwilling Amelia Donaghy, haunted by her cop father's suicide and thinking she's next, into working the crime scenes to track down the killer.
