Manchester United's England captain David Beckham is the highest paid player in Europe, France Football magazine says.

The magazine puts his earnings at 15 million euros (17 million dollars) a year, one million more than Real Madrid's French star Zinedine Zidane.

Brazil World Cup star Ronaldo, also of Real Madrid, was said to be on 11.7 million euros a year.

Fourth was United's England defender Rio Ferdinand on 9.62 million euros, followed by Juventus star Alessandro Del Piero on 9.55 million euros and, surprisingly, Japan's Hidetoshi Nakata, who plays for Italian side Parma, on 9.36 million euros. The magazine calculated

Semifinal first leg An all San Siro affair

CHAMPS LEAGUE '(Inter coach Hector) Cuper could make some changes, but I don't think he will give up on his 4-4-2 formation.

"Against Inter we have always broken down the flanks and taken advantage of the space they have allowed us.

Inter's Uruguayan midfielder Alvaro Recoba is equally excited about the tie, which could have sold the San Siro out five times over.

"Few people have the chance to playing a derby with a Champions League final at stake," he said.

"We are aware of how important these two matches are. You can't top playing in these matches.

Recoba believes Milan start as slight favourites because of their form in earlier rounds, but was upbeat about Inter's chances.

"Perhaps they are favourites, and I say that because Milan reached the semi-finals by playing a bit better than us," he said.

"But in the derby that counts "Everyone lives for moments for nothing. When the referee like this. I can't sleep," said the player who was signed from Inter. blows the whistle everything is even. Then we will see who wins."

"These are great times. It will Milan's central defender be an unforgettable semi-final Alessandro Nesta, who has and hopefully it will end in vicplayed a pivotal role in helping his side reach the last four, says Seedorf said he was expecting the two-legged derby is the highan open game rather than a light of his career so far. midfield scrap, even with plenty

"This is a new experience for me and I'm loving every minute ofit

"Playing Inter is always tense. This is a massive, massive game for both sides.'

Inter are without leading goalscorer Christian Vieri after the Italy international damaged ligaments in his right knee in the quarter-final against Valencia, while combative midfielder Cristiano Zanetti is suspended.

AC Milan's midfield will be weakened by the loss of Massimo Ambrosini, who like Zanetti is serving a one-match suspension.

Milan's legendary defender Franco Baresi believes the contest could be decided in Wednesday's first leg.

The first match is vital and Milan must make sure not to concede a goal," he said. "Even a 1-0 win could be enough. That's not to say they should play with fear, but they have to keep things tight.' With Juventus three points from clinching the Italian title with three games to go, almost everything hinges on the San Siro clashes for the two Milan clubs.

Milan however could take some consolation from the lightly-regarded Italian Cup having booked their place in the final where they will meet AS Roma.

Both Milan teams are virtually guaranteed of playing in next season's Champions League through their league positions.

Shetty lifts Bombay

REUTERS, Bombay

Left-hander Nishit Shetty slammed a blazing 132-ball 100 as hosts Bombay reached 228 for four in their second innings, 217 runs ahead of Tamil Nadu, on the third day of India's Ranji Trophy final on Tuesday.

Shetty, playing his first Ranji season, struck 13 fours and a six in an entertaining 188-run stand for the second wicket with former Indian Test opener Wasim Jaffer.

The 25-year-old Jaffer, who had scored a brisk 83 in the first innings, gave India's national selectors some serious food for thought but was unlucky to miss a century for the second time in the match when was trapped lbw for 98 by medium-pacer M Srinivas.

Opener Vinayak Mane (2) departed early, but Jaffer unleashed some exquisite shots square of the wicket to get Bombay off to a flying start.

He had 12 boundaries in his first 60 runs, but slowed down after tea as Shetty took charge from the other end

Shetty was particularly harsh on spinners Dhandapani and Sridharan Sriram and drove Srinivas straight back for a four to raise his 100. But he was out next ball, caught at backward point while going for an expansive cut shot.

Tamil Nadu, overnight 223 for four, had earlier stumbled for 271 in the day's first session.

Former Test player Hemang Badani, 45 not out at the start of they day, was tapped lbw for 56 by Ajit Agarkar, who finished with four wickets for 57.

But Tamil Nadu still have a shot because they could win their third Ranji Trophy title even if the match ends in a draw by virtue of their 11run first innings advantage.

Bombay have won the title a record 43 times.

Marsh becomes ECB selector AFP, London

Rodney Marsh, the former Australia wicketkeeper, has been named an England selector, the England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) said Tuesday.

Marsh has been England's Academy coach, responsible for nurturing up-and-coming international players, since it was formed in 2001

He replaces England Test captain Nasser Hussain, who retired from international one-day cricket following the team's first round World Cup exit in March, on the four-man selection panel.

Hussain said, in a newspaper column Sunday, he was quitting as a selector because the current home programme of seven Tests meant he had little chance to observe England prospects in county cricket.

"Omari bowled well, there are reas he has to improve to play Test ricket," said Lara. "When you play st-class games, you get away ith things but not in Test cricket. Australia captain Steve Waugh ined in Lara's criticism of the tch. Waugh said before the match at he had special plans for getting ara out but said they were not put to action because of the pitch. "They were not applicable on is wicket. They couldn't be put to action in this Test, so it was ack to plan B," he said. "We are not overcritical of the tch but it was different to what ou expect in the West Indies. "The pitches here have been flat d we don't want pitches worldide to become too similar. I'd ate to think they will all become ke one-dav wickets. VINDIES SQUAD rian Lara (captain), Ramnaresh
