DFID Department for International Development
An Equal Opportunity Employer

DFID Bangladesh
British High Commission

Vacancy Announcement Assistant Governance Adviser Department for International Development Bangladesh (DFIDB)

DFIDB is responsible for managing Britain's international development programme in Bangladesh, which is aimed at reducing poverty. This includes significant support to governance initiatives; working with government, key institutions of the state and NGOs.

Tasks:

Your responsibility will be to assist the governance team in DFIDB to deliver its outputs and purpose effectively, contributing to the achievement of DFIDB's Country Assistance Plan objectives, and delivering synergies to other parts of the wider DFIDB programme. Your primary task will be to assist with the implementation, development and appraisal of new projects to meet CAP objectives, as directed by the Governance Adviser and Senior Governance Adviser, particularly in relation to work under the enabling environment objective.

Specific tasks will include:

- Acting as the lead adviser in some specific existing projects
- Joining small multi-disciplinary teams responding to requests for cross-cutting governance advice
- Supporting the Governance Advisers in the design and development of new work areas
- Actively participating in policy debates within the DFID Bangladesh office
- Maintaining regular liaison with other donors and the Government of Bangladesh
- Contribute to the personal development of staff colleagues

Skills and experience required:

You will be a highly motivated "self-starter" committed to working with others to help improve governance in Bangladesh. In addition, you will be expected to contribute more broadly to the work of the governance team. To achieve this, you will work closely with the governance advisers and other DFID Bangladesh staff.

The Assistant Governance Adviser will have an important role in ensuring lesson-learning and dissemination between governance initiatives and other DFIDB projects and programmes, and feeding into advisers' lesson-learning and dissemination activities with Government of Bangladesh, donors and other partners.

It is essential that you have a Masters Degree in an area of social or political science, and experience in working with issues of governance. Ideally, this will be coupled to demonstrable experience and a proven track record of working on issues of political economy, including an understanding of formal and informal political systems and their links to private sector activity.

You must have excellent verbal and written communication skills in English, and should be able to use standard IT packages (word-processing, spreadsheets, etc).

The selected candidate may be eligible for a permanent contract based on performance after successfully completing a probation period. A competitive salary and benefit package will be offered, taking account of the successful applicant's responsibilities in this post, skills and experience. Bangladeshis living abroad are invited to apply.

For a full job description and application form, please e-mail to: dfidb-recruitment@dfid.gov.uk or contact in person at the Management Unit, DFID Bangladesh, House 76, Road 24, Gulshan-1, Dhaka - 1212. Only applications made on the application form will be considered. Completed HARDCOPY applications (only) are to be returned addressed to the HR & Training section by latest Monday (15:00 hour) 21 July 2003. Please clearly mark as "Assistant Governance Adviser" on the top left hand corner of the envelope. Applications are welcome from all ethnic groups, women and disabled people. Only short-listed candidates will then be contacted for Assessment Process.

Note: if you are requesting the Job Descriptions and Application Form electronically through e-mail, please write, "Assistant Governance Adviser" in the subject head of your e-mail (ensuring the spellings as suggested) and you will receive both papers automatically. Otherwise, you may not receive the papers.

DFID Department for International Development
An Equal Opportunity Employer

DFID Bangladesh
British High Commission

Vacancy Announcement Assistant Private Sector & Economics Adviser Department for International Development Bangladesh (DFIDB)

DFIDB is responsible for managing Britain's international development programme in Bangladesh, which is aimed at reducing poverty. This includes significant support to private sector and microfinance initiatives working directly with the private sector, NGOs, and Government.

Tasks:

Your responsibility will be to assist the economics and enterprise team in DFIDB to deliver its targets effectively, contributing to the achievement of DFIDB's Country Assistance Plan (CAP) objectives, and working on relevant parts of the wider DFIDB programme. Your primary task will be to assist with the implementation, design, and appraisal of new projects to meet CAP objectives, as directed by the Enterprise Adviser, particularly in relation to work under the financial sector objective. This will largely be focused on managing and guiding DFIDB's substantial investment in the field of microfinance initially.

Specific tasks will include:

- Acting as the lead adviser in some specific existing projects
- Joining small multi-disciplinary teams responding to requests for microfinance and economics advice
- Supporting the Enterprise Development Adviser in the design and development of new work areas
- Actively participating in policy debates within the DFID Bangladesh office
- Maintaining regular liaison with the private sector / Civil society, other donors and the Government of Bangladesh
- Contributing to the personal development of colleagues

Skills, qualifications and experience required:

You will be a highly motivated "self-starter" committed to working with others to help accelerate growth in Bangladesh. In addition, you will be expected to contribute more broadly to the work of the Economics and Enterprise team and DFIDB.

The Assistant Private Sector & Economics Adviser will have an important role in ensuring quality across the broad range of microfinance programming in the first instance, as well as contributing to wider work under the enabling environment objective of the CAP. The post will also involve a limited support role in macro-economic reporting within the Economics and Enterprise Team, and wider technical inputs to other DFIDB teams.

One of the following combinations of qualifications is required: (1) A first degree in Economics (including macro, micro and basic econometrics) plus an MBA or Finance Masters Degree from an internationally recognised programme OR (2) A first degree in Finance or Business Related Discipline plus an MSc in Economics (including macro, micro and basic econometrics). A minimum of five years experience in the managing microfinance initiatives and at least two years work in the private sector is also required. Ideally, this will demonstrate your experience and track record of working in microfinance and the key competency areas listed in the detailed job description.

You must have excellent verbal and written communication skills in English, and should be able to use standard IT packages (word-processing, spreadsheets, etc). The selected candidate may be eligible for a permanent contract based on performance after successfully completing a probation period. A competitive salary and benefit package will be offered, taking account of the responsibility of the post and the successful applicant's skills and experience. Bangladeshis living abroad are invited to apply.
