Shilpangan honours art-critics and art-journalists at the inauguration of Hamiduzzaman's water-colour exhibition

HARUN UR RASHID

JUNE 29 was an auspicious day for the art-critics and journalists of the country as Shilpangan, a reputed art gallery at Dhanmondi, honoured four of them for their contribution to the practice of art in the country. Eminent art-critics Rabiul Hossain and Moinuddin Khaled, and dedicated art reporters Fayza Haq of The Daily Star and Ashishur Rahman Shuvo of the Daily Jahankantha received the honour.

The occasion was yet more significant since the honour was bestowed at the inauguration ceremony of Hamiduzzaman Khan's solo watercolour exhibition. Chiefly a sculptor, Hamiduzzaman has a real passion for painting especially in watercolour; for, he had his first lessons of art in this medium under eminent artist Mostafa Monwar, Hamiduzzaman said.

Rabiul Hossain and Moinuddin Khaled are two frequent names who write on art-works by the artists, both young and old, of the country. Their writing has in fact contributed greatly to the art criticism of the country, which is still in its infancy. Besides evaluating the artists, especially the young ones, their criticism has also helped discover the cultural heritage and the characteristics of the country's thousand year old cult of art and painting.

The recipients with the awards Shilpangan conferred on them for their contribution to art criticism and journalism pose for photographs with the guests.

On the other hand, the two journalists also have helped the ongoing art movement expose to the countrymen, which in turn has advanced art and painting steps towards professionalism. The Daily Janakantha reporter Ashishur Rahman Shuvo said that this honour would surely inspire other young journalists to come forwards to reporting of art events. The increase of art galleries and exhibitions in recent times is surely a reflection of the popularity of art and paintings, and it has been possible for the wide coverage of these events by journalists, he said.

Fayza Haq of the Daily Star said she loves to attend the art events as she herself once used to paint.

Fond of oil painting mainly, Fayza also used to draw sketches in her school and college days. She would often illustrate the institutes' yearly magazines. Later, while working in The Sun, she would illustrate her short stories. In the early years at the Daily Star where she presently works, she ran a page called 'Living Page' where she often used to do the illustrations. She also did some illustrations when she wrote for the column 'Day by Day'.

Although Fayza never thought of drawing professionally, she has had two group exhibitions of her art works to her credit-one in Pakistan, and one at the Goethe Institut in Dhaka some 20 years ago. Presently, however, Fayza does not have enough time needed for continuing her drawing, she said, but the passion has never faded.

Celebrated artist Mostafa Monwar inaugurated the exhibition of Hamiduzzaman Khan's watercolour works. Conducted by poet Faiz Ahmad, Chairman of Shilpangan, the ceremony was also attended by Aziz Khan, Chairman of Summit Group of Companies.

Hamiduzzaman's exhibition includes some one hundred art work and runs up to July 12 everyday from 10am to 9pm.

CULTURE DESK

TO the connoisseurs of art, Nasir Ali Mamun is known as 'Camerar Kobi', meaning the poet with a camera. His photographs speak for themselves. He is possibly the finest portrait photographer of our country. Time is captured with a single click and is preserved forever. The most striking aspect of his portraiture is that it masterfully depicts the essential features of each personality that is photographed.

Mamun is famous for his portraits of creative and prominent personalities. He has also captured the images of international celebrities like Mother Teresa, Amartya Sen, Guenter Grass, Octavio Paz, Joseph Brodsky, Allen Ginsberg, Saul Bellow, Norman Mailer and many others. He has also 45 solo photographic exhibitions to his credit till today and he is an author of five books. His mixing of light and shade creates varied perspectives. Mamun's personal archive is an amazing storehouse of creative people captured in rare moments. His portraits of light and shade are numerous. He is unrivaled in creative and portrait photography and their witty presentation. Mamun dreams of building his photo archive at Faridpur some time in the near future. Today he celebrates his 50th birthday and is recognised as a trendsetter in this field.

Ustad Amjad Ali Khan

Amjad Ali Khan adheres to the principle that "One need not be equipped with theoretical knowledge of music nor is there a need to be awestruck. The uninitiated can respond as well as the experts to the melody, the combination of notes and the beauty of the ragas." His collaborations include a piece composed for the Hong Kong Philharmonic Orchestra, duets with Charley Byrd, Igor Frolov, Glenda Simpson and Barry Mason. He has been a visiting professor at the Universities of Yorkshire and New Mexico. In addition, one of his CDs titled 'Bhairav' had been voted among the best 50 classical albums of the world for the year 1995, by BBC Magazine.

In his case, the term 'beauty of the Ragas' acquires a special meaning as he has to his credit the distinction of having created many new Ragas. It is love for music and his belief in his music that has enabled him to interpret traditional notions of music for a new refreshing way, reiterating the challenge of innovation and yet respecting the timelessness of tradition.

Married, with two sons, Amaan and Ayaan, who have already been introduced to the concert platform, and are the seventh generation of musicians in the family, Amjad Ali Khan's wife Subhalakshmi has been a great exponent of the Indian classical dance, Bharatanatyam, which, sacrificed for her family. As a solo in his heart, he is a man who has proven his indomitable belief in the integration of two of the greatest forces, love and music, is a living example of a man who practices that integration every day of his life, both on stage and off.

TV GUIDE

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

HBO: 9:30p.m. All Quiet on the Western Front. The story is told entirely through the experiences of the young German recruits and highlights the tragedy of war through the eyes of individuals. As the boys witness death and mutilation all around them, any preconceptions about "the enemy" and the "rights and wrongs" of the conflict disappear, leaving them angry and bewildered.

STAR MOVIES: 10:15 Mr. Wrong. Martha is a single woman working at a television talk show. When her younger sister gets married, everyone's wondering when Martha is going to meet Mr. Right and tie the knot. When by chance, Martha meets a handsome stranger named Whitman, the two fall madly in love with each other. But soon Martha discovers little quirks in Whitman... little quirks that become horrifying nightmares.

PICK OF THE WEEK

Three to Tango

On HBO at 7.30 p.m.

A rich businessman, Dylan McDermott, mistakenly believes that Matthew Perry, who is bidding on a $90 million restoration contract, is gay and asks him to keep tabs on his mistress, Neve Campbell. Perry, who is not gay, falls for Neve in a big way but she thinks he's gay.

All programmes are in local time. The Daily Star will not be responsible for any activity in the programme.
