SB cheque forgery 9 staff of DU branch involved

DU CORRESPONDENT

Sonali Bank (SB) has identified nine officials and employees of its Dhaka University branch who were involved in cheque forgery sources said.

A vigilance team of the Sonali Bank Head office has completed its investigation into the misappropriation of money from the DU branch about a month ago.

The Dhaka University has also formed a seven-member committee to probe misappropriation of Tk 53.54 lakh from its deposits with the bank.

The bank's vigilance team will submit its report to the managing director within two days, sources said, adding that the bank would take necessary measures against the dishonest officials.

Meanwhile, United Commer cial Bank Limited (UCBL) yester day formed a three-member probe committee as Tk 42.50 lakh has been missing from the bank vault,

The High Court yesterday asked the attorney general to furnish copy of licences awarded to private TV channels by the govern-

The court also wanted to know whether the Ministry of Information has the authority to issue icences for private TV channels.

The court queries came during the hearing of a rule that began yesterday upon a writ filed by lamuna TV Limited. The rule was issued on December 17 last year. The petitioner sought for a direction to allocate the frequency in UHF Band V channel and grant licence with permission to impormachinery for TV broadcasting through terrestrial as well a through satellite channels.

Barrister Rafiqul Huq, counsel for the petitioner, submitted that his client sought broadcasting licence from the Bangladesh Telecommunication Regulatory Commission (BTRC) on February 13. But no decision was given within the stipulated time under the rules. But ntv, a private satellite channel, was awarded everything necessary within 43 days for the channel to begin transmission, he
