Jamuna Group chairman meets prime minister

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Chairman of Jamuna Group of Industries Nurul Islam Babul called on Prime Minister Khaleda Zia and apprised her of various issues concerning housing sector.

He alleged that the housing and public works ministry and the Rajuk created 'various obstacles in building New Uttara Model Town at Ashulia.

Jamuna group is its builder.

Babul also alleged that a section of real estate companies were filling up low lands in the suburbs of the capital, blocking flood flow zones and violating government rules. He called for investigation into the matters and proper action in this regard.

The prime minister gave a patient hearing and assured him of considering the matters, said a press release by Jamuna group.

Established Bridegroom having Business/ Engineering qualification is wanted for a final year medical student of an aristocrat Brahmin family. Candidates with suitable qualifications are requested to write in confidence soon.
