Housewife 'tortured to death'

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

A young housewife was allegedly tortured to death at Khilgaon on Sunday afternoon.

Tahmina, 25, wife of Mohammad Masud of Dasher Kandhi, was taken to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) by Nasima Begum, who introduced her as the patient's mother-in-law, at 3:00pm as she fell ill.

Nasima's statements about Tahmina's illness were confusing. She left the DMCH when the doctors declared Tahmina dead.

Meanwhile, Tahmina's father Muslim Hossain and brother Akram Hossain alleged that she was tortured to death.

Masud began to torture her since the marriage six years ago, said the father at the DMCH. All efforts to put a stop to the abuse failed, he added.

"When an unemployed Masud intensified the torture, I brought her to my house at Trimohoni a month ago. But I sent her back 15 days later as Masud's parents assured she would no more be tortured," said Muslim.

Masud's parents informed them that she suddenly fell ill. But locals said Masud tortured her. She was rushed to the DMCH as her condition deteriorated, Akram said.
