

Body of Aatur arrives tomorrow

STAFF CORRESPONDENT
Body of Mohammad Aatur Rahman, managing director of Gono Unnayan Prochesta, arrives in Dhaka from England tomorrow. Aatur died in the United Kingdom on August 6. He will be buried at Banani graveyard after his namaj-e-janaza at Banani central mosque at 10.00am. His qulhwani will be held at his residence at House-76, Road-2, Chairmanbari on August 14. Relatives, colleagues and admirers have been requested to attend the janaza and qulhwani.

GB students to continue agitation

JU CORRESPONDENT

The Gono Bishwabidyalaya (GB) students formed human chain on the National Memorial premises yesterday demanding immediate registration of Bachelor of Dental Surgery Department with the ministry of health and approval of Bangladesh Medical and Dental College (BMDC). The students formed the human chain as part of their week-long agitation that began on Tuesday.

Later, the students at a rally on the campus said they would continue their protest until their demand is met. They also urged the authorities concerned to take initiative as early as possible in this regard.

Meanwhile, no class and examination was held at the university yesterday.

The students will bring out a silent procession on the campus at 10:30p.m today.

The deadlock began as the government recently decided not to allow introduction of medical faculty under private university.

BKL demand

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Bangladesh Krishak League (BKL) yesterday demanded exemplary punishment to the killers of its Sirajganj district leader Matiur Rahman.

BKL President Mirza Abdul Zail and General Secretary Mohammed Motahar Hossain Mollah in a statement blamed the government for the killing.
