YWCA women artists' works at the National Museum

FAYZA HAQ

YOUNG women artists had collected for their last day's show at Novera Hall, National Museum, recently, filled with success and exhilaration -- which young amateur artists often feel -- having launched a fairly successful exhibition. They studied once a week at the YWCA and had other occupations such as studying or following up a career.

One of the members of the group, "Purbita", Ishrat Ferdousi, a doctor by profession, said that drawing and colouring has been her fascination since childhood, and it had been useful in her medical studies too.

Interview

Abu Sayeed talks about Kitton Khola

SHILPI MAHALANOBISH

The Daily Star: You received the national film award recently for a film which got awards in nine categories. How do you feel about it?

Abu Sayeed: Yes, the film Kitton Khola bagged nine awards. Since the 80s, I am involved in making short films and two of them received the national award but this is my first feature film to get an award. I think I have been well rewarded for my work.

TDS: You are a short filmmaker and you have made several dramas. How did the idea of making feature films come to you?

AS: When I was making short films, I also had the target of making feature films but finance was a problematic factor. I think every filmmaker has a dream of working on the big screen, to make a feature film.

TDS: Why did you choose the subject of village life?

AS: It might be because of my mental involvement with village life.

A scene from "Kitton Khola"

In this mechanised world, we have very little opportunity to see the village. Perhaps after 15/20 years we shall not even get to see the ordinary boats again. On the other hand, my short film Aborton was about the urban life.

TDS: Do you think that filmmakers are inspired when these off-thetrack films are awarded? AS: Certainly, the filmmakers do get the inspiration and the tendency of producing such films is on the increase.

TDS: What is your next work? AS: I am preparing the script for my next film and it will bear a complete reflection of my own thinking.

Personality

Suborno Kazi acts in Nazrul play

CULTURE DESK

SUBORNO Kazi, who has played the lead in Durdarshan serial on young Kazi Nazrul Islam (telecast on BTV last year), presented Nazrul's songs and poems on 26 August evening at Koochi Kanchar Bhaban.

Suborno is the grandson of Kazi Ali Hossain, the youngest brother of Kazi Nazrul Islam. He is trained at the Nazrul Academy in West Bengal.

Suborno Kazi and co-performer seen in "Shilpi"

Chattapaddya, the teachers having once been students of Kazi Nazrul Islam. "There I could also get Dhiren Bose, Biman Mukhopadhyaya as my teachers for music."

Asked about his teachers in Bangladesh, Suborno said that he had learnt with Feroza Begum and Sohrab Hussain. He said that he was seriously performing in public for five years. Apart from singing he was acting on stage since childhood, under the guidance of his father, Kazi Rezaul Karim, who was the secretary of the Nazrul Academy at Churulia, his village home. Apart from "Shilpi" he has taken part with group theatre such as the Hindol group and taken part in dances connected with Nazrul's works too. He has also acted in a film in 1994, directed by Rafiqul Bari Chowdhury and script by Dr Rafiqul Islam, where he performed as the teenaged Nazrul.

Dwelling on whether he preferred drama to singing he said that both were close to his heart and that he wanted to excel in both.

TODAY'S HIGHLIGHTS

HBO: 8:30pm. Assassins. Action/Thriller: Sylvester Stallone, Antonio Banderas, Julianne Moore. Robert Rath (Sylvester Stallone) is a seasoned hitman who just wants out of the business with no back talk. But, as things go, it ain't so easy. A younger, peppier assassin named Bain (Antonio Banderas) is having a field day trying to kill said older assassin. Rath teams up with a computer hacker named Electra (Julianne Moore) to defeat the obsessed Bain.

MGM: 11:30 pm. Conan the Destroyer. Action/Fantasy/Adventure: Arnold Schwarzenegger, Grace Jones. Princess Jehna has been captured by a sorcerer, so the evil queen Taramis (who wants to sacrifice Jehna and take the throne for ever) asks from Conan to find her and bring her back to the castle. Conan accepts, because Taramis has magical powers and thus she is the only person who can bring his dead love back in life.
