

Pry edn week begins tomorrow

UNB, Dhaka
The government has drawn up elaborate programmes to observe the National Primary Education Week 2003 beginning tomorrow. This year's theme for the week is 'Let standard education be ensured for all children', said an official handout. The programme will begin with plantation of saplings in the primary schools across the country and children's rallies. Health and Family Welfare Minister Khandakar Mosharruf Hossain will inaugurate the programme by planting a sapling at Senpara Parbata Government Primary School in the city at 11.00am. A colourful procession will also be brought out in the city at 8.00am. Prof Jahannara Begum, Primary and Mass Education advisor to the PM, and M Helaluzzaman Talukdar, chairman of standing committee on Primary and Mass Education, will lead the procession. A rally of children and juveniles will be held on the Osman Memorial Auditorium premises at 8.45am.

Mass media playing vital role in strengthening democracy

President tells Chinese press team

UNB, Dhaka
President Iajuddin Ahmed said newspapers and mass media in Bangladesh are now discharging their responsibilities independently.

"Mass media are playing important role in flourishing democracy in the country," the president said when a Chinese press delegation made a courtesy call on him at Bangabhaban yesterday. Wei Mingxiang, executive secretary of All China Journalists' Association (ACJA), led the delegation. Information Minister Tariqul Islam was also present and took part in the discussion. Welcoming the Chinese journalists' delegation at Bangabhaban, the president said China is a long-tested friend of Bangladesh. Expressing satisfaction over the existing friendly ties with China, the main development partner, he said several long bridges as well as Bangladesh-China Friendship Conference Centre are the symbols of friendship of the two countries.

The president also underscored the need for close communication between the journalists of both the countries. Referring to continued contacts between the mass media and at cultural level, the delegation said the relations between the peoples of both the countries would be strengthened further in the days ahead.

They also lauded the role of mass media in development and democracy of Bangladesh.

Secretary to the President Anisul Haque Chowdhury, senior vice-president of Jatiya Press Club Nurul Huda, general secretary Shawkat Mahmud and director general of External Publicity Wing of Foreign Ministry Zahurul Haque were present at the meeting.
