

SWEET HOME, BITTER JOURNEY

EID journey turned bitter for city dwellers as thousands jostled for tickets while scores could not manage secure seats despite having tickets. Thousands of others travelled on the roofs of trains and launches. Dense fog disrupted road and river links keeping them stuck at ferry terminals or in mid-river for hours amid shivering cold. Many had to even say Eid prayers on the way, as they could not reach home in time.

Photo:Star

