The rest of the qualified candidates of both the arts and commerce groups have been put on the waiting lists, sources said.

All the viva voce will be held at the Social Science Faculty, they said.

Thousands demand electoral reform senior opposition leaders addressed a rally at Paltan Maidan and vowed to resist any election without reforms in the system of caretaker government and the EC. They said the people had no confidence in the present BNP-Jamaat alliance government as it had totally failed to run the country.

The leader of the opposition also Awami League (AL) president, Sheikh Hasina, did not attend the rally due to 'illness', the organisers said.

AL General Secretary Abdul Jalil read out a message from Hasina where she expressed her regret for not being able to join the rally and said movements of the people to establish their rights never ended in fiasco.

This time too the people's movement will not go in vain, their victory is a must, she added.

"Demand of reforms in electoral process and the system of caretaker government is no more a demand of only the 14-party...it's now a demand of the people," Dr Kamal Hossain said. People have no faith in the existing EC and for the sake of free and fair polls reforms are a must, he said.

Dr Kamal, the Gono Forum president, bitterly criticised the Chief Election Commissioner (CEC) MA Aziz and accused him of working in favour of the ruling alliance.

"You have proved yourself as an unqualified person by showing loyalty to the ruling alliance and any EC under your leadership will not be able to hold a free and fair election," Kamal said.

He said the present government had destroyed integrity of the EC by appointing controversial persons with a political motive to manipulate the elections.

Referring to torture on opposition activists by the police and 'government backed goons', the senior leader asked the 14-party activists to make a list of persons who have been involved in repression.

"Make a list of tormentors in your area and we will bring them to book if we come to power."

Following the rally the opposition leaders led the march riding on a truck which went through Paltan intersection, Kakrail, Matsya Bhaban crossing, Shahbagh intersection, Elephant Road, Science Laboratory intersection and Kalabagan before reaching Russell Square in Dhanmondi in the evening.

The procession paralysed city traffic, leaving all sorts of vehicles stranded on clogged streets.

Law enforcers were deployed to maintain peace during the demonstration.

Abdul Jalil said people were demonstrating to exercise their democratic rights demanding universal franchise through free and fair elections in the country. "But the alliance government has been conspiring against the people's rights since they took charge," he said.

Letting out a diatribe against

Prime Minister Khaleda Zia he said, "You (PM) fear elections and that's why you are conspiring against a free, fair and neutral election."

AL Presidium Member Abdur Razzak said the alliance government is proceeding towards an election of conspiracy without paying any heed to the people's demand. "We want such an election where the people could vote for who they like," he said.

Regarding joining the parliament, Razzak said until the alliance government gives them floor in the house to speak they would not join the parliament. "Every time we wanted to speak, we were not given the floor. We wanted to speak on criminal activities, militancy and price hikes, but the alliance government did not give the floor to us."

Workers Party President Rashed Khan Menon said the BNP-Jamaat government has become crazy in its pursuit to come back to power through rigging the elections and has completed all preparations in this regard violating the constitution, court verdicts, democracy and the people's rights. "But, the people will not let you implement your blue print," he said.

Tofail Ahmed, Suranjit Sengupta, Advocate Jahurul Islam, Mainuddin Khan Badal, Dilip Barua, Nurul Haque, Abdus Samad, Advocate Enamul Haque, Zakir Hossain, Mofazzel Hossain Chowdhury Maya and Asaduzzaman Noor also spoke.
