A Fatah militant shoots in the air in front of the Palestinian Legislative Council building on Saturday in the West Bank city of Ramallah. Some 600 Fatah activists and dozens of Al-Aqsa Martyrs Brigades gunmen marched through the city towards the PLC to protest against their party following polls defeat to Hamas.

No immunity for Hamas leaders if remain violent: Israel

Israel will accord leaders of the radical Islamist movement Hamas no immunity if they persist in waging "terrorist" attacks against the Jewish state, Defence Minister Shaul Mofaz said

"Those at the top of a terrorist tration that includes elements of organisation and those who continue to carry out attacks against the State of Israel will not have immunity," Mofaz told army radio following Hamas's huge victory in the Palestinian election. The Israeli government has rejected any question of negotiations with a Palestinian adminis-

Hamas unless the faction disarms its armed wing and recognises the Jewish state's right to exist.

Hamas's Ezzedine al-Qassam Brigades has been responsible for dozens of suicide attacks in Israel. The Israeli military has likewise carried out a campaign of targeted assassinations against Hamas militants and leaders.

Blair to hand over power to Brown within 2 yrs'

British Prime Minister Tony Blair has reached a "new understanding" to hand over power to his finance minister Gordon Brown within two years, a close ally and former minister said yesterday.

"My sense is that there is a new understanding, yes," former work and pensions secretary David Blunkett told BBC television.

"And it is good because anybody with any ounce of understanding of politics knows that when Tony Blair and Gordon Brown work together we are a winner and when they are divided our opponents can divide us and it is as simple as that," Blunkett said. "So good on them.

Non-proliferation analyst Gary Samore told AFP that the United States wants the London meeting to send a strong message to Iran and would be pushing for a statement from what is a gathering of the five permanent Security Council members -- Britain, China, France, Russia, the United States -plus Germany that would warn Iran against nuclear fuel work.

North Korea warns 19 Iraqis, GI killed in attacks of nuclear war

North Korea warned of nuclear war Saturday and vowed to strengthen its deterrent forces as it demanded that Washington show evidence backing its allegation that the communist regime is counterfeit-ingUS money.

"Dark clouds of a nuclear war are hanging low over the Korean Peninsula," the North's official Rodong Sinmun newspaper said in a commentary carried by state-run Korean Central News Agency.
