Capturing the essence of endless time

Dr Noazesh Ahmed(R) Inaugurating the exhibition

One of the photographs on display

ERSHAD KAMOL... THE serenity of nature as well as the hazards of metro life are the two major facets of a photography exhibition, titled 'Life Route'.

Naazesh Ahmed inaugurated the exhibition. The photography exhibition is dedicated to veteran cinematographer of the country M Abdus Samad, the founder chairman of the Department of Film and Media.

shadow and light of a sunset. The titles of their photographs are apt-- Neelambar, Shondhya Akash, Jodio Shondhya Ashichhe Monthore, Biday Sharabela and Shesh Bela, among others.

Dujan: Shukh Dukkha Raag Ahimane, is another interesting work Portraying two crows on a pole, he has tried to have insights into their world.

Marina's pristine paintings

FAYZA HAQ

Marina Golyaeva's water-colour and pen creations, seen in her solo ongoing exhibition at the Russian Culture Centre, are lyrical and soothing.

idyllic images of the flora and fauna around her, creating images that remind one of the peaceful days past. There is nothing of the turmoil and trauma of the complex metropolitan existence.

The realism in her work is amazing. It is not just photographic as Marina blends her feelings and emotions into her work, adding shades and lines to the background and foreground -- so that there is a definite individuality in her creations.

Potho Natak Festival begins today

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

A seven-day potho natak (street play) festival begins today at two venues: Central Shaheed Minar premises and Rabindra Sarobar near Dhanmondi Lake.

"BGTF arranges an annual potho natak festival, especially in the February-March season, as these two months are milestones in our national life. Last year we arranged the festival in March to observe our Independence Day.

Ekushey Book Fair on TV

CULTURAL CORRESPONDENT

Through the years, the Ekushey Book Fair has become a manifestation of our national intellect, literature and creative energy.

Readers at the Ekushey Book Fair '05

To cover the event, Channel-i will air Boimela Protidin, everyday at 4:25 pm. The programme will feature updates on the fair, information on books published on the occasion and interviews with the authors.

Bangladeshi documentary goes to Berlin International Film Festival

Bangladeshi documentary film Wishes from Bangladesh, by Mohammad Ali Haidar, is to participate in the competition section of the upcoming 56th Berlin International Film Festival.

Mohammad Ali Haidar, (each 2 minute-long) are being aired as part of the TV programme for children, Sisimpur.

The documentary produced by the Sesame Street Workshop (SSW), highlights the struggles of Bangladeshi children from lower middle class families.

Poet Jasimuddin's classic work Beder Meye depicts the struggle of Champaboti, a gypsy woman. Beder Meye features the colourful lifestyle of the snake charmers, who wander from one place to another by boats.
