

15 Years of Journalism Without Fear or Favour

THANK YOU READERS

Advertisers

Patrons

Contributors

Well-wishers

You have made us the largest circulated and most trusted English daily in the country.

On the occasion of our 15 Anniversary we are going to bring out six separate colour supplements, totalling 312 pages, on six different dates.

First

"Celebrating Bangladesh"

Saturday, 4th February, 2006

This section will depict Bangladesh's achievements since independence, especially following the restoration of democracy in 1991.

Second

"Trends"

Tuesday, 7th February, 2006

In this section, we portray the changing lifestyles of modern Bangladeshis in urban settings. We will have special sections on fashion, interior decoration, furniture, jewellery etc.

Third

"Our Cities"

Friday, 10th February, 2006

We focus on the historical and contemporary aspects of six of the biggest cities in the country. We try to suggest measures to make them better equipped to handle modern urban challenges. We will have a special 20-page section on Dhaka, suggesting ways to solve some of its urgent problems.

Fourth

"Sports"

Monday, 13th February, 2006

In this section, we will celebrate our considerable gains in sports.

Fifth

"Investment"

Thursday, 16th February, 2006

This section will focus on the achievements of our economy and highlight the growing sectors and areas with growth potential.

Sixth

"Bangladesh and the World"

Sunday, 19th February, 2006

We have taken a comprehensive look into the whole gamut of our foreign policy, including our relationships with various multilateral and regional groupings. We have proposed a forward-looking view of how Bangladesh can play a more effective role in the global scene.

In all our supplements we have tried to bring together the best and the most experienced minds to serve our readers with new insights into the future of Bangladesh. We are confident you will find our humble effort worthy of your attention.

Don't miss any of our special issues. Ask your hawker for your copy.
Price Tk. 10 ( daily paper plus supplement)

The Daily Star