Job Announcement Labor/Human Rights Lawyers - Dhaka-Khulna
American Center for International Labor Solidarity (ACILS)

ACILS is seeking 2 (two) Labor / Human Rights Lawyers (Advocates) to serve our Legal Services with Garment and Shrimp Factory Workers programs in Dhaka and Khulna.

The Lawyers will work together with the ACILS' Dhaka and Khulna offices and partners to deliver legal services to garment and shrimp factory workers. The Lawyers will assist workers in putting forth formal grievances to employers, assist workers in reaching settlements to disputes with employers, provide legal representation, and train workers on labor rights. The Lawyers will work under the supervision of the ACILS' Legal Programs Officer and ACILS Country Program Director.

These are part time (30 hours per week) positions and require evening work. One assignment is in Dhaka and one assignment is in Khulna. The Lawyer selected for the Khulna assignment must reside in or relocate to Khulna. Kindly state which assignment(s) you are applying for in your letter of interest.

Qualifications: The ideal candidate(s) will be an advocate with at least 2 years of demonstrable human rights and labor law experience; substantial knowledge of labor issues and global trade; experience and desire to work directly with workers and field level staff; working fluency in written and spoken English; experience in quantitative and qualitative reporting; and a demonstrated commitment to advancing human rights. Reliability, accountability, integrity, and commitment are essential. Experience in adult education is desirable. ACILS strongly encourages qualified women lawyers to pursue these positions.

Applications: Qualified individuals are invited to submit letter of interest and CV (in English via post or e-mail only) to:
 American Center for International Labor Solidarity
 Attention: Labor / Human Rights Lawyers - Dhaka-Khulna
 House 48, Road 28, Gulshan 1, Dhaka
