Ace is the smooth operator of the Tangiers casino, while Nicky is his boyhood friend and tough strongman, robbing and shaking down the locals. However, they each have a tragic flaw—Ace falls in love with a hustler, Ginger, and Nicky falls into an ever-deepening spiral of drugs and violence.

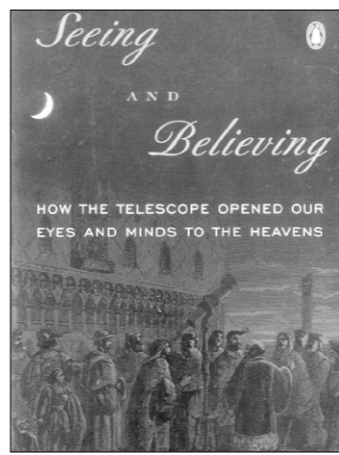

Books

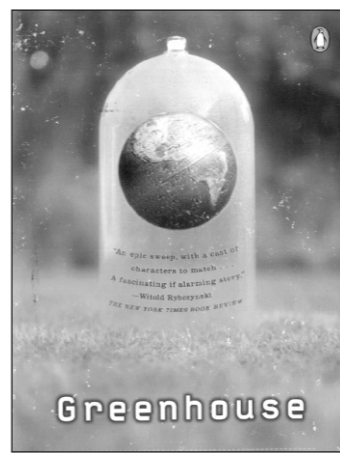

Impressionists The Life, Times and Work of the World's Greatest Artists KE Sullivan Price: Tk 1500.00 The impressionists transformed our way of looking at art, even our view of nature; their sudden brilliance made much of the painting that came before them seem dull and uninspired. This compelling book is a tribute to this extraordinary movement and the energy and originality of painters who created it.

The Hour of the Goddess Memories of Women, Food and Ritual in Bengal Chitrira Banerji Price: Tk 855.00 This unusual book weaves a warm, evocative tapestry out of memories of food, ritual and women's lives in Bengal. The author writes of growing up from girlhood to womanhood in her native land and the food and ritual become intimate experiences which definitely shape day-to-day life for the women of that culture.

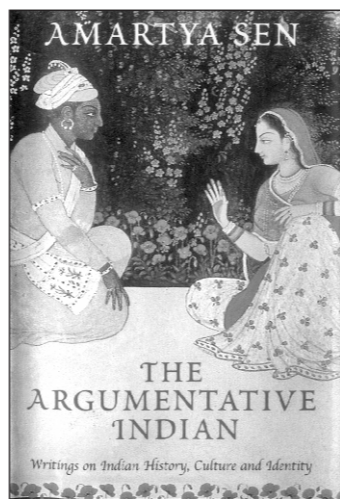

Seeing and Believing How the Telescope Opened Our Eyes and Minds to the Heavens Richard Panek, Price: Tk 720.00 The book surveys the centuries of discovery following the creation of the telescope, introducing the remarkable and remarkably strange stargazing pioneers who changed forever our perception of the cosmos—from Galileo to William Herschel, the musician-turned-astronomer who discovered Uranus, to George Ellery Hale, who founded two major observatories.

Greenhouse The 200-Year Story of Global Warming Gale E Christianson Price: Tk 1175.00 The emergence of global warming is one of the most compelling stories in the history of humankind. In the book, the author blends the research of a scholar with a novelist's storytelling skill, finding the clues to global warming both deep in the past and right before our eyes.

The Argumentative Indian Writings on Indian History, Culture and Identity Amartya Sen, Price: Tk 2000.00 The book by the Nobel laureate brings together an illuminating selection of writings that outline the need to understand contemporary India, including its thriving democracy, in the light of its long argumentative tradition. Sen argues that external views also affect the national perception of identity through an interactive process, especially in the post-colonial world. The West has often perceived India as a place of endless spirituality and unreasoning mysticism. Yet it has a long tradition of scepticism and reasoning, with perhaps the largest body of agnostic and atheistic literature, secular contributions in mathematics, astronomy, linguistics, medicine and political economy.

Energy Security in Bangladesh Edited by Qazi Kholiquzzaman Ahmad, M Anwarul Azim, Abdul Awal Minto Price: Tk 225.00 Energy is a strategic determinant of economic and social progress. Bangladesh is currently unable to ensure necessary energy supplies to meet the energy demand of the country. The gap between energy demand and supply in the country is widening. While demand is increasing as result of economic, social and technological expansion, the supply remains sticky. It is, therefore, essential to take steps to ensure necessary energy supplies and their proper distribution to all uses and users throughout the country.
