 My family and I gratefully acknowledge the outpouring of condolence, sympathy and support from numerous friends, neighbours, relatives, acquaintances and well-wishers at home and abroad after the recent death of our only son, Abu Mohammad Zahid Reza Khan (Ranon), in a car accident on 31 January '06 in Sydney, Australia. We have accepted the loss as Allah's will. We try to find solace in the divine blessing and a deeper understanding of His wisdom to endure the grief and anguish. Your generous concern and compassion have been a source of fortitude and comfort for me and my family. We are humbly moved that Ranon had touched so many so deeply and that so many of you cared so much for him. It is astounding that his demise has evoked such genuine emotions among such multitude. I seek your continued goodwill and prayer. May Allah bestow peace to the departed soul and grant him a smooth and accelerated path to eternal heaven.
