

South Asian economics students' meet ends

DU CORRESPONDENT

The two-day meet of the economics students of South Asian countries ended in the city yesterday.

The slogan of the meet was 'Sharing ideas for better understanding of South Asian development'.

About 40 students from renowned universities in India, Pakistan, Sri Lanka and Bangladesh took part in the Prime Bank 3rd South Asian Economics Students' Meet-2006.

Bangladesh Bank Governor Dr Saleh Uddin Ahmed delivered thanksgiving speech at the closing ceremony at a city hotel while Prof Farid Uddin Ahmed, chairman of the economics department of Dhaka University, presided.

A total of eight technical sessions and a quiz competition were held at three venues, including Biam auditorium, in the two days.

Organised by the DU economics department, the meet was sponsored by Prime Bank Limited while Channel i and The Daily Star were the media partners.

The first meet of economics students was held in India in 2004 and the second one in Pakistan in 2005.

Tomorrow's NU exams postponed

UNB, Dhaka

All examinations, scheduled for tomorrow under National University, have been postponed due to unavoidable circumstances.

The postponed examinations will be held at 9:30am on March 17.

The schedules of all other examinations under the university, however, will remain unchanged.
