

Invitation For Expressions of Interest
On Media Market Development

KATALYST, a project working to promote Small and Medium Enterprises (SMEs) in Bangladesh, is inviting proposals from consulting firms/professional bodies/training organizations and other relevant entities for implementing activities that would promote the role of media in developing businesses in Bangladesh. A description of the activity is given below:

Media Management

Initiate media management seminars in collaborations with associations of media owners and managers. Additionally, work with trainers to develop and promote media management courses to media houses.

Major Tasks

- Initiate media management seminars to explore issues around the 'business of media' and the importance of the audience in collaboration with associations of media owners and managers.
- Identify existing and potential media management trainers and work with them to adapt management courses to the media business model and promote these to media houses. The seminars can be seen as a promotion of these types of management courses.

Organizations bidding for this work must have extensive experience and credibility in senior management training for commercial managers in media.

Interested firms are requested to collect before May 25th 2006 the Terms of Reference (TOR) from KATALYST office by sending in a letter of interest along with the organization profile to Manager, Services Division KATALYST at House 20, Road 6, Baridhara. The TOR can also be collected electronically by emailing the letter of interest to servicediv@swisscontact-bd.org.
