Schoolboy electrocuted

OUR CORRESPONDENT, Tangail

A schoolboy was electrocuted and another seriously injured while hoisting Argentina's flag at Mirzapur upazila in the district

The victim was identified as Zahid Hassan, 14, son of Pahelee Sikdar of Ghandhabba Para village.

Witnesses and family sources said Zahid, a student of class eight of a local high school, and Mohammad

Shawdheen, 10, a student of class four of a local primary school, were electrocuted while they were trying to hoist a flag of their favourite team on top of a green bamboo pole at around 1:00pm. At one stage, the bamboo came into contact with an electric wire, leaving the two seriously injured.

Locals rushed them to Mirzapur Kumudini Hospital in critical condition where the on-duty doctors declared Zahid dead.

Australia offers 20 cholarships for CHT students a year

The Australian government will offer 20 scholarships for indigenous students of Chittagong Hill Tracts a year to study in Australia, says a press

Australian High Commissioner Douglas Foskett and UNDP Resident Representative and UN Resident Coordinator in Bangladesh Renata Lok Dessallien, signed an agreement on behalf of their respective sides in this regard at the Australian High Commission yesterday.

After signing the agreement, Douglas Foskett said, "This funding underscores Australia's strong commitment to supporting development and confidence-building in the CHT. Under this scheme, Australia will provide 100 scholarships to students from CHT over the next five years, at a cost of up to 10 million Australian dollars. Graduates of the programme will be able to make an important contribution to the development of one of the most needy regions of Bangladesh.'

Renata Lok Dessallien said, "This scholarship initiative will significantly enhance the role of CHT people in their own development. The area will reap many benefits when the returnees begin to play important leadership and technical roles within the CHT institutions and their own communities.
