remained closed during the hartal. Motorised vehicles kept off the roads but rickshaws piled as usual in Dhaka and other major cities and towns. Bus communication between the capital and districts remained suspended while train and launch services operated normally.

More than 20 AL lawmakers brought out a procession from the NAM flat area at about 10:00am yesterday and started marching towards Farmgate. Police intercepted the procession on Manik Mia Avenue. As the lawmakers tried to proceed on, police resisted them and this continued for more than one hour and a half.

At one stage, police assaulted Ekbar Hossain and tore off T-shirts of Tanjim Ahmad Sohail Taj and Mohammad Ali. Protesting the police assault, they sat on the street and demanded punishment of the cops involved in the incident. They held a brief rally demanding immediate implementation of electoral reforms.

Talking to The Daily Star, Sohail Taj said they would raise the issue in parliament. "We will demand formation of a House body to probe the incident, and consequent firing of the police personnel responsible for this."

When asked, DMP Assistant Commissioner Mizanur Rahman, who was on the spot, denied the allegation.

Around 125 people including 20 policemen were injured in a clash between police and opposition workers and local leaders at Kamrangirchar. Officer-in-Charge of Kamrangirchar Police Station Sarwar Jahan Sarkar was among the injured cops.

The clash erupted when police arrested a unit AL Vice President Nur-e-Alam from a local market. Hundreds of AL workers and locals requested police to release him but in vain. Then they attacked police with sticks and bricks. Police retreated in the face of the mob attack.

On information, several hundred policemen in riot gear rushed to the spot from different police stations and charged baton on the mob.

The agitated people built up resistance to police action piling up sand bags and taking cover behind that. They continued throwing bricks at the law enforcers during the nearly two-hour mayhem that started at 10:30am. Hundreds of women from different houses also pelted stones at police.

Police fired gunshots and rubber bullets and lobbed teargas shells to disperse the mob. More than 100 opposition workers and locals received minor injuries.

Being dispersed, the demonstrators took shelter in different by-lanes and houses and continued pelting bricks at police. At one stage, police entered the by-lanes and houses while firing rubber bullets and lobbing teargas shells to end the violence.

Police lobbed more than 100 teargas shells blanketing the area with toxic smoke.

Later, about 200 ruling BNP men rushed to the spot, joined police and chased the AL workers. The ruling party men caught many of them and handed over to the law enforcers.

The BNP loyalists took control of the area and brought out a procession. The mob set afire a three-wheeler and a rickshaw and damaged two pick-up vans, protesting the police action.

Kamrangirchar police said they arrested 11 people on charges of obstructing their duties and violent picketing. Lalbagh police also arrested eight people for picketing and damaging vehicles.

Some 10 people including journalist Rafiqur Rahman Reku of the Amar Desh were injured in a clash between police and pickets near Government Titumir College at Mohakhali. The clash broke out as police intercepted an opposition procession led by 14-party leaders Tofail Ahmed, Dilip Barua and Syed Zafar Sazzad.

The activists set afire a three-wheeler and damaged about 10 vehicles. Police charged baton and lobbed teargas shells to disperse them.

Being dispersed, the picketers took shelter at different by-lanes and continued pelting bricks at police for more than one and half-hour.

Police intercepted a procession led by AL lawmaker Asaduzzaman Noor near Shapla Chattar at Motijheel. As the opposition men pelted bricks, police clubbed and chased them. At least five persons including a police officer were injured. Police picked up three persons.

The AL central office on Bangabandhu Avenue and the adjacent areas including Noor Hossain Square were virtually under police siege since Monday midnight as the law enforcers put barbed wire fences on the roads.

A procession led by Motia Chowdhury was intercepted by police at different points while it was coming towards the AL central office. Opposition loyalists held a brief rally on Bangabandhu Avenue under police vigilance.

Police also cordoned off the Jatiya Samajtantrik Dal (JSD) office after dispersing a party procession at about 7:30am near.

Around 7,000 police, Rab and BDR were deployed in the capital to avert untoward incidents.

CHITTAGONG Our Chittagong office reports: The hartal passed off peacefully in the port city yesterday.

Educational institutions, many business establishments and commercial houses remained closed.

Delivery of goods to and from Chittagong port remained suspended but activities inside the port continued normally.

Government offices remained open while bank transactions and activities in some private offices also started in the afternoon.

Train service and Biman flights operated as usual and long distance vehicles started plying in the afternoon.

BARISAL Stray incidents of violence marked the opposition-called hartal, leaving at least 30 people injured in the district yesterday.

Supporters and opponents of the hartal brought out separate processions at Babuganj upazila headquarters that led to clashes between the two sides.

The incident left around activists of the ruling BNP and opposition parties. As police resorted to baton charge to bring the situation under control, five of them including a sub-inspector were injured.

Tension was mounting in the area and security was stepped up.

Meanwhile, Barisal City AL Convener Showkat Hossain Hiron alleged that Police and BNP cadres had earlier raided houses of AL leaders and workers and threatened them not to take active part in the shutdown.

CMH at about 12:45pm to see the body of Khurshid Zahan.

Party sources said the body of Khurshid Zahan was taken to the BNP central office at Naya Palatan at noon and her first namaj-e-janaza was held there at about 2:00pm. Her second janaza was held at South Plaza of the Jatiya Sangsad at about 2:45pm.

Acting Speaker Akhtar Hamid Siddiqui, chief whip, deputy leader of the opposition, ministers, MPs, diplomats and employees of the parliament attended the janaza.

Prime Minister and Leader of the Parliament Khaleda Zia, Acting Speaker Akhtar Hamid Siddiqui and Foreign Minister M Morshed Khan placed wreaths on the coffin. Deputy Leader of the Opposition Abdul Hamid placed wreath on the coffin on behalf of the Leader of the Opposition in Parliament Sheikh Hasina.

Khurshid Zahan Haque was born at south Balurbari in Dinajpur town on August 11, 1939.

She passed matriculation from Dinajpur in 1954 and obtained BA degree from Tangail Kumudini College in 1958. She was the general secretary of Kumudini College Students' Union from 1956-57.

She was nominated as member of parliament to a women reserved seat in 1991. Later, she was elected MP from Dinajpur-3 constituency in 1996 and 2001. Khurshid Zahan Haque was also involved with a number of social welfare organisations and played a significant role in the country's socioeconomic development.

Our Dinajpur correspondent reported that Khurshid Zahan Haque was laid to rest beside her father's grave at Faridpur graveyard in Dinajpur town last night.

Her namaj-e-janaza was held at Dinajpur Gora Shahid Maidan after Magrib prayers. Thousand of people, including the leaders and workers of the ruling BNP and other political parties, took part in the janaza.

Earlier, an aircraft of Biman Bangladesh Airlines, carrying the body of the minister, arrived at Saidpur Airport. Later, the body was brought to the district town by an army ambulance.

Poland's Radoslaw Sobolewski was sent off late on for two bookable offences.

Artur Boruc had earlier made two superb saves in the best passage of play of the match. First, Philipp Lahm cut in from the left and curled a shot toward the far corner, then substitute Oliver Neuville shot first time from six yards. But each time the Polish keeper made superb saves to keep his side in the match.

Germany manager Jurgen Klinsmann made an attacking substitution with winger David Odonkor, who plays in this stadium for Borussia Dortmund, coming on for defender Arne Friedrich.

anti-government programmes, including Dhaka-siege and 36-hour countryside shutdown. The new programmes also include a demonstration in the capital tomorrow and across the country on June 17 to protest police atrocities on the opposition men during the hartal.

The opposition combine will mobilise people in favour of electoral reforms from June 18 to 19 under each police station and ward in the capital.

On June 20, it will lay siege to the EC Secretariat in the capital and district election offices across the country from 11:00am to 1:00pm.

The opposition combine and other political parties concerned will conduct mass communication across the country during June 22-30 to inform people about the all-out misuse of the BNP-jamaat alliance government and mobilise them in favour of the electoral reforms.

They will put blockades on highways and rail tracks and obstruct river communication on July 2 from 9:00am to 3:00pm.

Briefing the newsmen, the AL president strongly condemned the police assaults on three AL lawmakers during yesterday's hartal. Hasina accused the alliance government for assaulting all AL lawmakers over the last four and a half years.

The coalition government began looting public money, torturing the opposition men, minorities and journalists immediately after taking charge, she said, adding that it has hiked prices of everyday essentials through a syndicate of Hawa Bhaban. "The situation should not be allowed to go on further," she said.

The opposition leader accused the government for harassing AL leaders and workers following gunshots at an election commissioner's residence.

"As the alliance government knows that people will not vote for them, they are now conspiring to rig the next election," she said, adding that the countrymen will not allow the government to steal votes in the upcoming election.

The meeting was attended by senior leaders of the opposition combine, including Abdur Razzak, Tofail Ahmed, Abdul Jalil, Sheikh Fazul Karim Selim, Kazi Zafarullah, Motia Chowdhury, Obaidul Quader, Hasanul Haque Inu, Dilip Barua and Bimal Biswas, among others.
