When Garfield (voiced by Murray) follows his owner, Jon Arbuckle (Meyer), to England, the U.K. may never recover, as Garfield is mistaken for a look-alike, regal cat who has inherited a castle. Garfield savours the royal treatment afforded by his loyal four-legged subjects, but his reign is in jeopardy. The nefarious Lord Dargis (Connolly) is determined to do away with Garfield, so he can turn the castle into a resort. Garfield's bigger, better, more purr-fect world is soon turned upside down in this tale of two kitties.

Sean Boswell is an outsider who attempts to define himself as a hot-headed, underdog street racer. To avoid jail time, Sean is sent to live with his gruff, estranged father, a career military-man stationed in Tokyo. He is soon introduced to the underground world of drift racing. On his first time out drifting, Sean unknowingly takes on D.K., the "Drift King," a local champ with ties to the Japanese crime machine Yakuza. Sean's loss comes at a high price tag.
