Academic achievements by Bangladeshi girl

Shubarna Amin, a Bangladeshi girl successfully completed graduation with high distinction in Life Science (Honours) in the field of Integrative Biology from the University of Toronto, Canada. Her GPA was 3.97 out of 4. Being in the top 15 students all through her academic session (2002 to 2005) she got the prestigious honour of "Toronto University Scholar". She also remained in the worthy "Honor's List" of the University through out her academic session.

In recognition of her outstanding and brilliant result she received several awards viz. UTSC Prize, Scholar's Award, Int'l Golden Honour Society, Canada Millennium Scholarship and many more.

Though undergraduate, she was assigned the responsibility of Teaching Assistant, Exam Invigilator and Lab Demonstrator at the University of Toronto for her excellent academic fit. She was also an academic mentor of Chemistry for student residence community. Even, in 2003 she got the rare opportunity to participate in research project supervised by Dr. J. Donaldson for securing highest grade. Presently she is working on a highthroughput research project under the supervision of Prof. Charles Boone at the Centre for Cellular and Biomolecular Research at the University.

Shubarna is the only daughter of Mrs. Marufa Amin and Mr. M. Aminuzzaman, the Managing Director of National Bank Ltd. and Chairman of Association of Bankers Bangladesh (ABB).
