GREY WORLDWIDE

Advertising agency of the year 2005

No doubt by now you have heard of FA.R. (Floor Area Ratio).

Yes, this new rule, if implemented sincerely by all should improve the overall environment of our neighbourhoods.

Indeed, we should all welcome rules that improve our built environment. Smaller plot owners will hopefully combine their plots so that all can benefit from the improved neighbourhood.

At last, most of you can enjoy amenities more commonly associated with Bay's projects in Gulshan & Baridhara. With the new rule, projects are expected to allow for some green open-space, even projects in lower price range. Would you like a preview?

Come, see Bay's finished projects, featuring patios and gardens. It's time to be where you deserve to be. Yes, it's time to live the dream. Come, let's build our future together.
