SPORT

side

The Daily Star

Darrell did not panic

REUTERS, Melbourne

Darrell Hair said his decision to ask for 500,000 dollars to quit his role as an umpire following the Pakistan balltampering furore was not a panic reaction to events at The Oval last week

Hair has been heavily criticised since the International Cricket Council (ICC) revealed details of an email he sent to officials requesting a one-off payment in return for quitting their elite panel of umpires after the row. "It wasn't a spur of the moment thing. didn't do it off the cuff," Hair told Australia's Sunday Mail.

Hair and fellow umpire Billy Doctrove imposed a five-run penalty on Pakistan for ball tampering on the final day of the fourth Test against England in London last week.

Pakistan subsequently forfeited the game when they refused to take the field after tea in protest at the decision. It was the first forfeiture in Test cricket's 129-year history.

But Hair, who has been vilified in Pakistan's media over his decision and a perceived bias against Asian teams, said he meant no harm with the shock offer to stand down revealed on Friday. "This correspondence was composed at a very difficult time and was revoked by myself after a period of serious consideration," he said in a statement.

"There was no malicious intent behind this communication with the ICC. I am anxious the code of conduct hearing takes place as soon as possible so these matters can be resolved and allow me to move on with my umpiring.

Hair insisted his request had fallen on some sympathetic ears before he retracted it following an intervention from ICC Chief Executive Malcolm Speed

"I had dialogue with them. (ICC Umpires and Referees manager) Doug Cowie even said in his email reply to my offer that the proposal had merit

Asked whether he would ever umpire again, Hair told the Mail: "Let's address one thing at a time."

ECB may not buy Aussie ump idea

BBC ONLINE, undated

England are unlikely to support a plan to scrap neutral umpires for this winter's Ashes series

Recent reports claim Cricket Australia are keen for the "best umpires in the world" to stand in the five Tests, regardless of their nationality But an England and Wales Cricket Board (ECB) spokesman said: "The ICC have a well-established principle of appointing neutral umpires for "It's a process that the ECB are extremely comfortable with." There are 10 umpires on the ICC's elite umpiring panel Under existing rules, Australians Simon Taufel, Darrell Hair, Darvl Harper and England's Mark Benson would not be considered for on-field start. duty during the Ashes series. But Peter Young, Cricket Australia's Head of Communications, said recently: "If we lived in a perfect world it would be great if the forthstop. coming Ashes series, played between the best two teams in the world, could have the world's best umpires officiating.

Belgian tennis star Justine Henin-Hardenne hits a forehand against Lindsay Davenport during the final of the Pilot Pen Tournament in New Haven. Connecticut on Saturday.

Lindsay hands Justine title scheduled to start Monday.

Tennis

INTERNET, undated

will do everything I can to make sure It was tough enough that Lindsay I make it," Davenport said. "I will Davenport was facing one of the probably just rest a lot and won't hit world's top players. She had to the ball until the warmup before my battle her health as well. next match.' The defending champion, The 1998 US Open champion, Davenport was forced to retire from Davenport showed little fight and Saturday's final of the Pilot Pen dropped the opening set in 22 min-Tennis tournament with a right utes before calling for a trainer. shoulder injury, handing the title to During an official injury timeout, she Justine Henin-Hardenne of went back into the locker room, Belgium. her right shoulder.

The seventh-seeded Davenport appeared uncomfortable from the start and trailed, 6-0, 1-0, against the world's third-ranked player when she decided to retire from the 1.275 million dollar co-ed tournament.

second set. She decided to retire "I've been struggling with my after hitting a forehand into the net. shoulder throughout the week, Davenport said. "The pain started travelling down my arm, even into my wrist. Henin-Hardenne, who took more than a month off after losing to France's Amelie Mauresmo in the Wimbledon final, noticed that Davenport was not right from the "At the beginning of the match, I could tell she was not hitting the ball as usual," Henin-Hardenne said. "She made the right decision to injury comes at a terrible time as the been no stranger to injuries herself, year's final major -- the US Open -- is retiring from the final of the Australian Open in January against "If I have to play Monday, then I Mauresmo

In the final of the 675,000-dollar men's event, second seed Nikolay Davydenko of Russia captured his third title of the year with a 6-4, 6-3 triumph over No. 10 Agustin Calleri ofArgentina.

The seventh-ranked player in the world, Davydenko improved to 4-0 in his career against Calleri. He also beat him at Sydney and Bastad this

"I just tried to keep on serve," said where she had a bandage placed on Davydenko, who didn't drop a set in Despite the medical attention. the tournament. "I won my first three the 30-vear-old Davenport had a service games easily. And after look of disappointment on her face broke him, I just wanted to hold my as she lost in the first game of the own serve. From the beginning of the second set. I started feeling better and better. It finally got dark, and I played well every point.

Hewitt to defy pain Haq focused Bird on Inzy's on cricket US Open begins today

AFP, London Former Test umpire Dickie Bird believes Pakistan captain Inzamamul Hag should be acquitted of the charges levelled against him following the controversial fourth Test against England. Bird's comments come after the International Cricket Council (ICC) revealed umpire Darrell Hair had sent an email requesting a payment of 500,000 US dollars to retire from the game following the furore at last Sunday's Test at The Oval.

Bird believes the ICC now have little option but to acquit Inzamam. facing charges of ball-tampering and bringing the game into disrepute

"It is looking like the charges are going to be dropped," said Bird. "It is looking in favour of Pakistan now and it is my regret that it ever came to this in the first place. "Everybody should have used a little bit of common sense, tried to finish the Test match then thrashed it out behind closed doors.

"The public had paid a lot of money to watch a cricket match and they did not get it, so they might think twice about going back to cricket in the future.

Bird officiated in 66 Test matches during his career and believes much hard work needs to be done to rescue the image of the game. "It is a very, very sad time for cricket and there is no doubt our great game has been badly hurt. But as in the past, I am sure it will eventually get over it," he said.

Former England captain Mike Atherton said it was "extraordinary" the ICC were yet to charge Hair with any impropriety

Atherton said: "It seems extraordinary when you consider that Inzamamul Haq has been charged on two counts -- one of balltampering, for which nobody can find any evidence, and secondly for bringing the game into disrepute on the back of the first charge. "So poor old Inzy finds himself under two charges, but Darrell Hair, after these extraordinary letters, finds himself under no charge whatsoever." Atherton told Sky Sports News.

Hair snubbed by county

PTI. I ondon

Controversial umpire Darrell Hair now finds himself out of favour in English domestic cricket as well with the Players' Association and some sections of ECB questioning his credibility to stand in county games The Australian official has gone from being seen as a respected umpire to a villain in less than a week after his actions led to the first ever forfeiture in Test cricket at The Oval

With 200 days to go before the start the later asked for a 500 000.

except one at all

Hewitt, the 15th seed, is keen to maintain his excellent record at the last major of the season, where he has reached at least the semifinals in five of the past six years. Former champion Lleyton Hewitt "I've been able to play with said he would go through the pain niggling injuries in the past," he barrier to compete at the US Open said.

"There's no doubt my ankle wasn't 100 percent during the French Open but I was able to get through a few rounds and push (Rafael) Nadal in the fourth round.

"I had patella tendinitis and then "I definitely know how to play with pain, at least. That could be a little issue with my patella tendon something that's going to get as well," the former world number tested again here in the next fort-"It's definitely not 100 percent night," added Hewitt, who is chasing the third grand slam title of his yet. Hopefully if I don't aggravate it any more during the tournament, it career

Pakistan skipper Inzamamul Haq has decided to put behind the Oval

PTI, Karachi

Test row and bring his focus back on cricket with the start of the ODI series against England this week. "What has happened has happened and now we have to look towards the future." Inzamam was quoted as saying in the News on Sunday. Inzamam faced an eight-ODI or four-Test ban after being charged with ball tampering and bringing the game to disrepute following Pakistan's forfeiture of the fourth Test against England last week. "The (Pakistan Cricket) Board would be taking care of it, I am sure. My job is to play to the best of my ability in the forthcoming onedayers and to make it sure that my boys do the same." he said

Dar slams Pak protest

"The problem is that if one country attempts it, then others will follow and that cannot be good for the game in the long-run." Dar said.

Dar also argued that the spot-

Cricket

INTERNET, undated

Tennis

REUTERS, New York

which starts on Monday.

still not fully recovered.

Hewitt pulled out of the Toronto

Masters Series event earlier this month with a knee injury and has one told reporters on Saturday.

will just get better and better."

Aleem Dar, one of two Pakistani umpires on the ICC's Elite Panel, has said that Pakistan's decision to protest and stay off the field on the fourth day of the fourth Test at The Oval last week, was wrong and may harm the game in the longterm.

Pakistan refused to take the field after Darrell Hair penalised them for ball-tampering, a decision which ultimately led to the Test being forfeited. But Dar told Cricinfo: "There are other ways of protesting and the avenue they chose I believe was the wrong one. Strictly according to the law, the decision is correct. Opinion on Pakistan's decision to protest and refusal to come out after tea has been mixed. The protest galvanized much of the nation; it was seen by many as a protection of their honour. But some ex-players, such as Imran Khan, Javed Miandad and Wasim Akram have struck discordant notes; the latter two agree with Dar in that it shouldn't have happened

INTERNET, undated

portion of the work at the stadium. Lockerbie, venue development he said at the Hilton Barbados.

"The stadium will not be complete in legacy format. We are doing

"We want to make sure that Trinidad and we are working pre-tournament matches remain with the local organising committee and the government to get it done. We are considering all options. It took some time to get the master plan in place to have the stadium ready in its most effective state. The time span affected the CWC schedule, but we are confident that with GL

Events coming in, all will be Lockerbie added: "We have ready.

everything we can to get ready.

that you can but others are not so sure. Dar, diplomatically, hedged his bets. "You can tell sometimes that tampering has occurred, depending on the level of it. On a new ball offered to resign in return for a suggest, however, that the whole light has unfairly focused on Hair, after the Test became the first in the obviously it is easy to say if somehistory of the game to be forfeited. thing has been applied to it. On an "It is not about one umpire. It can't older ball it becomes more difficult be about just one. Both umpires but not impossible. As I say, it depends on other things. But the and even those off the field are umpires can check at any time they involved. Those decisions on ball tampering and the forfeit were not want." Dar was understandably reluctaken by Hair alone.' Much fury in Pakistan has been tant to talk of Hair's attitude and the vented at the lack of evidence with subsequent revelation that he had regards to the charge of ball tampering, the incident at the very root 500,000-dollar pay-off. He did of the hullabaloo. That is to miss the point, as Dar points out. "There situation -- from the ball-tampering penalty to the eventual forfeit -doesn't seem to be video evidence but we must remember that no might have been handled differevidence is required. It could be ently by other umpires. "It's importhat Pakistan is right and they didn't tant to remember the decisions themselves weren't wrong. But it do anything but as an umpire that is vour decision. depends on your personality how you handle it. The situation

The lack of video evidence suggests that the state of the ball, already 56 overs old when it was changed, will become crucial when the hearings are eventually held for Inzamamul Haq. There is uncertainty whether evidence of tampering can be proved just by inspecting the ball; Aaqib Javed is adamant

> FORMULA 1 Massa makes it first could've been handled better."

Dar is regarded by many to be the second best umpire in the world behind the Australian Simon Taufel.

But if the last week has posed any sort of dilemma at all for him -- torn between his profession and his country -- then he's not letting on.

REUTERS, Istanbul

Ferrari's Felipe Massa celebrated an emotional first Formula One victory in Turkey on Sunday while countries, might take on a major Renault's Fernando Alonso won an epic duel with title rival Michael Schumacher. In recent weeks Don

World champion Alonso's sec-

"At the moment, the best umpires officiating are Australians."

During the 2005 Ashes series in England, which the home side won 2-1, umpiring duties were rotated between New Zealand's Billy Bowden, South African Rudi Koertzen. Aleem Dar of Pakistan and West Indian Steve Bucknor Benson and two other English officials, Jeremy Lloyds and Nigel Llong, were chosen, however, to fill the TV umpire role.

Mehrab enters

FROM PAGE 17

for us because he is not only an important batsman in the middle order but also the captain of the team. We will wait till the last moment." he said.

the fitness of Bashar as he has yet to confirm weather he will need a surgery for his injured left metacarpal.

weeks of my injury but I'm confused about weather there will be need for a surgery. If it is needed, ICC Champions Trophy is over for me. I will meet with a local doctor tomorrow but I need a week to settle the issue. What I desperately want is to play the tournament," informed Bashar, who had was injured while fielding of the second match against Zimbabwe.

Raiin Saleh, Javed Omar, Aftab Ahmed, Mohammad Ashraful, Khaled Mashud, Alok Kapali Tushar Imran, Mushfiqur Rahim, Mohammad Rafique, Mashrafee Bin Mortuza, Syed Rasel, Shahadat Hossain, Forhad Reza, Abdur Razzak, Sakib Al Hasan and Mehrab Hossain

Having missed missed much of 2006 with back problems and a concussion, Davenport's latest

With only the top four seeds receiving first-round byes, Davenport had to play four matches to reach the final. She won all of them in straight sets, even beating the top-ranked Mauresmo in the quarterfinals Thursday.

"It's tough to play so many matches and stay healthy," a tearyeyed Davenport said. "You want to play your best, but maybe it was just too much, too soon." With the abbreviated win in the 600,000-dollar Tier Il women's event. Henin-Hardenne claimed her fifth title of the season and 28th career

Greeks end Sino run

Sofoklis "Baby Shaq" Schortsianitis.

stands 2.08m but has the wide size and inside speed and power that earned him a nickname harkening to NBA superstar big man Shaquille respect in their first live meeting.

"Baby Shaq" earned Yao's

"I hope good luck for him the rest

China stormed to an 8-0 lead in of his career, especially when he

The 21-year-old Greek center

The French Open champion has Davydenko broke Calleri three payout to stand down from the Elite times and saved all six break points Panel. against his serve in the match that The events have now prompted lasted 81 minutes "I had three or four break points early, but he served very well," Calleri said. "He didn't give me a chance to break him. He just played very well on the important points. I didn't serve that well, but he didn't give me a lot of opportunities during the match. I didn't play badly, but could have played a little bit better obviously. Of course, he helped me to play not so well."

some members of the English cricket fraternity to wonder whether Hair, who lives in Lincolnshire, should be allowed to officiate on the county circuit > next year, the 'Sunday Times' said. Hair is on the England and Wales Cricket Board's reserve list, and an umpires' spokesman told the newspaper that he would be considered for promotion to the full 25-man panel after the current season ends on September 24.

But an ECB member questioned whether such a move would be appropriate for English cricket.

"Darrell Hair has no credibility left." he said. "I can't see him being welcomed at county games. I'm not sure other umpires would be happy standing with him. I expect he'll become a celebrity umpire, trundled out to officiate in benefit matches and find the fielding side guilty of ball tampering." The Professional Cricketers'

Association has also come out openly in this case "In the short term, we think it would be inappropriate for him to stand given that he is in a stressful situation and the focus should be on the cricket," the association's chief executive Richard

BOA in total

FROM PAGE 17 with best of facilities but also could not hire foreign coaches.

Shooting had a Chinese coach for less than two months before the competition, but his presence hardly helped the shooters as he could not speak English. And absence of an interpreter did more harm than good. leading the shooters to return home without a single gold.

The athletes also suffered. One coach had to take care of the whole team although it is preferable to have different coaches for short distance runners, jumpers and hurdlers. The swimming team trained under two coaches at home but the federation had selected one man who failed to notice the swimmers' problem or correct them. Football paid the price for appointing incompetent and controversial manager and team leader. But the hockey federation was perhaps at its wits end by appointing the secretary of the athletics federation as manager of the hockey team.

of the 2007 World Cup in the West Indies, all 12 stadiums in the region are looking in good shape -

There are great doubts over the readiness of the Brian Lara Stadium in Tarouba, Trinidad and Tobago, and officials have put authorities there on notice. The facility -- which will host pretournament matches -- is behind schedule. A Cricket World Cup (CWC) inspection team will visit the ground on September 7 and a decision is expected by midmonth.

Organisers are looking at several options as backup in case the ground cannot meet the required standard for a global event the size of the World Cup. As it stands, the ground will now only be used for the four scheduled matches. It will not be used as a back-up venue as part of the contingency plan.

some issues in every territory, as It is understood that the probwe are still not precisely where we lems are not with the actual develwant to be with pitches and fields. opment, but that the powers-thatbut that's one area we can catch up be in Trinidad took a long time to on. decide on the scope and size of the project. As part of the rush to get ready, GL Events, the French

Walcott no more

FROM PAGE 17

In 1993 Walcott succeeded Sir Colin Cowdrey as chairman of International Cricket Council (ICC) and, the following year, was knighted for his services to cricket. President of the West Indies Cricket Board (WICB), Kenneth Gordon, described Walcott as one of the greats of West Indies cricket. "Sir Clyde was one of my closest personal friends and he will be remembered for his unique contribution as a player, coach, commentator and administrator," said Gordon.

Lance Gibbs, the most successful spin bowler ever produced by West Indies, said of Walcott: "He has been one of our greatest ambassadors.

"I played against him in Guyana and he was a great batsman. He was a great on-side player and if you bowled short at him he was quite prepared to hook.

"Clyde has always been a dominant individual as far as West Indies cricket is concerned. He will be a great loss indeed," Gibbs told the BBC.

director of the CWC, repeatedly ond place, by barely half a car's expressed concerns over the length, stretched his overall lead to proposed 15,000-seat facility.

12 points with four races remaining. When asked about the situa-As the young Brazilian roared to tion, Lockerbie was direct. "It's the the chequered flag from pole posione stadium we have concerns over as we reach 200 days to go", tion, a winner at last after 66 starts. teammate and seven times champion Schumacher was locked in combat with Alonso. He and the Spaniard ran nose to tail over the closing laps, with Schumacher vainly striving to get past as the 25-year-old repelled every effort.

After 58 laps and nearly 310 km in the searing heat, just 0.081 of a second divided the Renault and the Ferrari as they flashed across the line almost side by side.

Despite that disappointment. Ferrari still slashed Renault's lead in the constructors' championship to a mere two points. Renault now have 160 and Ferrari 158.

"Thank you boys, thank you," shouted Massa, punching the air in delight at a result that he could barely have expected when he and undisputed team number one Schumacher had lined up together on the front row.

Mahalchhari

FROM PAGE 17

minute while Delwar Hossain slotted in the second to seal the victory in the 70th minute.

Matiranga had themselves to blame after they missed a penalty early in the match. Mahalchhari now take on hosts compatriot. "On my first tour to England in Khagrachhari on August 30. 1976 he was my manager," Holding told Cricinfo.

Walcott was also manager of the Former West Indies fast bowler

West Indies team which won the Michael Holding paid tribute to his 1975 and 1979 World Cup.

"He helped me a lot early in my career. I can give you one example of what Clyde was like. On that tour we'd played against Hampshire and I wasn't very happy

"I didn't have the best equipment for English conditions, my studs were too short, and I was feeling sorrv for myself

"Clvde could see this because | was sat at the back of the coach on my own and he just came up and sat down next to me -- just to have a

"After I'd told him the problem he suggested a talk to some of the county pros and find out about how to get some new equipment. That was Clyde, he wouldn't wait for you to ask him, he would approach you and try to help."

F'ganj power FROM PAGE 17 a single goal as Arafat opened the account in the 32nd minute by converting a penalty corner. Apart from Arafat, Faisal Hossain and Sheikh Sumon Ali scored a goal apiece. Faisal doubled the margin in the 54th minute with a field goal while Sumon scored five minutes before the final whistle.

In the day's other match, Mukta Bihanga Tarun Sangha played out a 1-1 draw with Shishu Kishore Sangha.

Mafizur Rahman put Mukta Bihanga ahead in the 32nd minute while Jahangir Alam scored the equaliser for Shishu Kishore Sangha in the 47th minute.

Basketball

AFP, Saitama

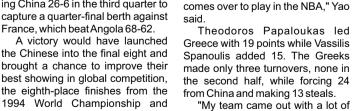

China's dream of a best-ever finish in global competition was shattered at the World Basketball Championship here Sunday by Greece, which eliminated the Asian champions 95-64

Despite a 12-point Chinese lead early in the second guarter, the unbeaten Greeks rallied by outscoring China 26-6 in the third guarter to capture a quarter-final berth against France, which beat Angola 68-62.

But there were confusion over "I am feeling good after four

PRELIMINARY SQUAD

Habibul Bashar, Shahriar Nafees

O'Neal

2004 Athens Olympics. respect for China and we had a few "All I can say is we made our nerves," Greece coach Panagiotis lowest goal," Chinese center Yao Yannakis said. Ming said. "We didn't win but we "China were up 10 points. We went down fighting. We did well in lost our concentration but then we the first half. In the second half they started to play good defense. We were too much for us." pushed more and more to get them China took a last-second victory to make mistakes because the team over Slovenia just to reach the 16that makes the most mistakes team playoff rounds, but were loses. pounded by the United States and Italy as well as European champithe first 4:03, the Greeks missing ons Greece and Yao was blunt when their first seven shots on the way to asked about China's weaknesses. missing 16 of their first 21, and "Everywhere. Our team doesn't stretched the lead to 23-11 on Wang have a lot of spirit to play against the Shipeng's 3-pointer 41 seconds into best teams in the world," he said. "We just need to play more and aet more experience.' The 2.23m star center for the National Basketball Association's the second quarter. But Greece awoke with a vengeance. Papaloukas scored eight points and Spanoulis added seven in a 19-4 Greek run over a five-Houston Rockets averaged a tourminute span of the second quarter, nament-high 28 points a game but helping the Greece seize a 41-36 managed only 10 points against a half-time edge determined Greek defense led by

"Greece was very disciplined,' Yao said. "There is not a lot of difference between their inside shooters and outside shooters. They can help each other when they play together."

The Greeks broke open the game in the third quarter, six steals and nine Chinese turnovers contributing to a 26-4 run in the last eight minutes of the period for a 67-42 edge entering the fourth quarter.

"In the beginning it looked like we had prepared well but after that we were verv bad in offense. We made too many turnovers and we lost confidence," China coach Jonas Kazlauskas said.

"Spanoulis and Papaloukas changed the game for Greece and broke our defence. They were more aggressive."

Scrappy win

FROM PAGE 17

He also added that this win will act as a 'tonic' for his team ahead of the next match which they must draw to ensure a berth in the semifinals. The only consolation for Comilla was a man-of-the-match award for Sharif

TEAMS

SYLHET: Sohel, Pradip, Deen, Munna, Rahel, Joy, Monir, Ripon Robin, Kanchan and Zakaria. COMILLA: Sharif, Nazmul, Azad, Masud, Jamal, Pintu, Farid, Mehedi, Moin and Jahangir.

Bevan said.