Emerging Markets Group Seeks Staff for Health Project in Bangladesh
Emerging Markets Group (EMG), an independent firm associated with Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu, provides development consultant services under donor-funded initiatives such as USAID, DFID, CIDA, MCC, The European Commission, the World Bank and the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria. Based in our corporate offices in Washington DC, London, and Brussels, and in project sites globally, our professionals are committed to excellent client service, sustainable development impact, and to improving peoples' lives. EMG employs more than 300 professionals in over 60 countries globally. Our professionals have lived or worked in over 75 countries and speak more than 30 languages.
EMG is currently seeking staff for a bid on a USAID-funded health project in Bangladesh. The Project will build the capacity of NGOs in Bangladesh to deliver quality health services in a sustainable fashion. EMG is recruiting staff for a wide range of positions, including technical team leaders, finance managers, and administrative staff.
Qualifications will vary by position, but may include:
• Demonstrated experience working with health projects in Bangladesh
• Expertise in family planning / reproductive health, maternal/child health, NGO capacity building, service expansion, clinical care, financial sustainability, or quality improvement.
• Experience in policy dialog, monitoring and evaluation, grant management, or compliance with donor regulations.
• Excellent verbal and written communication skills in both English and Bangla
• Experience implementing and reporting on large donor-funded programs
• Experience working on USAID-funded programs
For additional information, please refer to the EMG webpage- www.emergingmarketsgroup.com
Interested candidates please send resumes by September 30th to recruitmentHealth@emergingmarketsgroup.com. Please reference "staff-Bangladesh" in the subject line.
