Vacancy Announcement

The Joint United Nations programme on HIV and AIDS is searching for a suitable qualified Bangladeshi nationals to fill up the position of Social Mobilisation and Partnerships Adviser for its office in Bangladesh.

Duties and Responsibilities: Under the supervision of the UNAIDS Country Coordinator, the Social Mobilisation and Partnerships Adviser will work with the national HIV authority (NASP) and the UN Joint Team on AIDS (and by extension the Theme Group on HIV) to strengthen the UNAIDS's contribution to effective national leadership and strategic management of HIV country programmes, primarily through:

- a. Facilitating and supporting the development and/or strengthening of national partnerships forums, inclusive of civil society and private sector, and
- b. Mobilizing increased, sustainable involvement of actors from all sectors in society in the fight against AIDS.

The broad responsibilities of the incumbent include but not limited to: (1) support processes to develop and strengthen strategic partnerships and alliances for an expanded response in the country; and (2) facilitate and support the active engagement of civil society - especially those most affected and vulnerable and including labour organizations and the private sector - for social dialogue, policy development and activity implementation.

Qualifications and Experience: Post-graduate degree in social sciences or health, or equivalent academic preparation with strong interpersonal, representational and advocacy skills. Ability to facilitate and strengthen involvement of a range of external partners in HIV/AIDS work. Understanding of HIV/AIDS epidemic and its implications is necessary. Knowledge of UN system and development issues highly desirable. The candidate should have at least 8 years experience in civil society mobilization, collaboration and partnerships development. Considerable experience at country, regional and/or international levels in the field of HIV/AIDS and fostering partnerships with a range of sectors, including a range of civil society sectors, government and intergovernmental organizations. Broad experience in working with and mobilizing a range of external partners. Excellent oral and written skills in English as one of the UN official working languages. Knowledge of one of the other UN official languages would be an asset.

The successful candidate will be offered an attractive package depending on qualifications and experience and a one year renewable contract based on satisfactory performance. Female candidates are encouraged to apply. Unsolicited intervention in favour of any applicant will result in immediate disqualification. Only short-listed candidates will be responded to.

Submission of Application: Application should be marked 'Confidential' and the position applied for should be clearly written on the envelope. Application including curriculum vitae and a recent passport-size photograph should be sent to the Country Coordinator, UNAIDS-Dhaka, GPO Box: 224, Dhaka-1000, or deposited at the Deposit Box at the IDB Bhaban (8th Floor), Begum Rokeya Sharani, Agargaon, Dhaka-1207 by 16 November 2006. Detailed Post Description can be downloaded from the following website: www.un-bd.org/undp/jobs
