Seeking Applicants for Applied Research Small Grant Program

Theme for 2007: "Co-Management of Protected Areas"

The East-West Center (Honolulu, Hawaii) together with the Forest Department's Nishorgo Support Project will provide up to 12 applied research grants on the subject of "Co-Management of Protected Areas". Researchers are invited to explore issues relating to the co-management process now in place at the five Nishorgo pilot Protected Areas (sites include Teknaf Game Reserve, Chunati Wildlife Sanctuary, Lawachara National Park, Satchuri National Park and Rema-Kalenga Wildlife Sanctuary).

Grants will support four to six months of field research. Awards will provide lump-sum funding to cover travel to and from the field, food and lodging, and a small field per diem for each researcher. These grants do not provide funding for an academic degree.

Awardees will be required to attend a five day hypothesis refinement workshop from January 7-11, 2007, in Dhaka, and then attend a month-long writing workshop in July or August of 2007. As the hypothesis workshop follows immediately after the Eid Holidays, awardees are expected to obtain necessary leave permission so as to be ready to start in Dhaka on the morning of the 7th.

Eligible applicants for the research grant are Master's students and Lecturers at any university in Bangladesh. Other than MBA students, only Master's students who are enrolled as of December 1st, 2006 in a thesis programs are eligible, such as MSc and MPhil students. Assistant Conservators of Forest (ACFs) that are currently employed by the Forest Department may also apply. Only one applicant is allowed per grant.

Applicants are requested to submit a pre-proposal of up to two pages, a curriculum vitae, and a letter of recommendation from a Professor in their department (or senior officer in the case of the Forest Department). Pre-proposals must be postmarked by December 7th, 2006. Selection will be made on the basis of the pre-proposals. Pre-proposals should be sent to:

East-West Center/Nishorgo Support Project Small Grants Program,
Nishorgo Support Project,
House No. 68 (2nd floor), Road No 1,
Block-I, Banani, Dhaka-1213.

An informational seminar to provide guidance on writing pre-proposals will be given at the Forest Department's Conference Room (6th floor, Ban Bhaban, Mohakali office) in Dhaka on November 26, 2006, for those interested.

For more details, see "2007 Applied Research Small Grants" on www.nishorgo.org. This grants program receives funding from the American people through USAID.
