

2 commit suicide over family feud

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

Two people including a man and a woman committed suicide in the city in the early hours of yesterday. Bina Begum, 25, wife of Asad Mia, a grocer at Sutrapur, committed suicide by hanging herself from the ceiling of her bed room.

Asad has been absconding since the incident. Police said Bina might have committed suicide following altercation with her husband. Mejbah Uddin Koraishi alias Tipu, 40, also from Sutrapur, committed suicide by hanging himself from an overhead pipe of the toilette.

Abdus Sattar, a close relative of Mejbah, told this correspondent that he had a dispute with his wife for long. Police recovered both the bodies in the morning and sent them to Sir Salimullah Medical College Morgue for autopsy. Two unnatural death cases were filed with Sutrapur Police Station.

Take steps for free, fair election

Leaders of Sammilita Karmakarta-Karmachari Oikya Parishad in a meeting yesterday urged the caretaker government to take necessary initiatives for creating a congenial atmosphere for holding a free and fair election, says a press release.

Its leaders said that if the current crisis is not resolved, people would suffer much, civil administration would be inoperative and law and order would deteriorate.

They also urged the civil servants of the country to maintain law and order and perform their duties to hold a free and fair election.

Parishad Convener Engr Md Nurul Huda chaired the meeting while President of Prajatantra Parishad Syed Yusuf Hossain, former president of Bangladesh Medical Association Prof Rashid-e-Mahbub, Member Secretary of the Parishad Nazrul Islam and its member Dr Mushtaq Hossain also spoke.
