

Children display an impressive physical performance at the Victory Day celebration at Bangabandhu Stadium in the city yesterday.

PHOTO: STAR

Bijoy TV starts test transmission

CU CORRESPONDENT

Bijoy TV, the first private satellite TV channel of Chittagong, started its test transmission yesterday.

Chittagong City Corporation (CCC) Mayor ABM Mohiuddin Chowdhury formally inaugurated the transmission at a ceremony at Theatre Institute Chattagram (TIC) auditorium.

Mohiuddin in his speech said the new TV channel aims at putting up the potentialities of Chittagong before the whole world.

Apart from focusing on the plentiful resources, the channel would also highlight the varied culture and history of the port city, he said.

He also referred that Chittagong was first to resist against the occupying forces of Pakistan during the War of Liberation.

He said despite its role in the history of freedom and contributions to national economy Chittagong had always been neglected.

AL celebrates Victory Day

UNB, Dhaka

Awami League (AL) yesterday took out a colourful procession in the capital marking the Victory Day.

Hundreds of AL leaders and workers joined the procession, carrying national and party flags, colorful festoons and makeshift boats in a festive mood.

The procession started from Engineers Institution in the afternoon and terminated at Bangabandhu Museum at Dhanmondi after parading the main city streets.

Earlier, Awami League leaders Sajeda Chowdhury, Abdur Razzak, Tofail Ahmed and Suranjit Sengupta along with the party activists placed wreaths at Shikha Chiranton (eternal flame) at Suhrawardy Udyan.

Prior to the procession, a brief rally was held in front of the Engineers Institution with AL president member Amir Hossain Amu in the chair.