

3 killed in Savar road crash

UNB, Savar

Three unidentified passengers were killed and 35 others injured as a bus crashed into a tree at Dhamrai yesterday.

Police and witnesses said the accident took place near Sutipara bus stand when the driver of the Jhenidah-bound bus from Gabtali in Dhaka tried to overtake another bus at about 12:30pm, leaving three passengers dead on the spot.

The injured were admitted to Dhaka Medical College Hospital and different local clinics. Of them, condition of 10 was stated to be critical.

'Tara Festival of Bengal' in Delhi from Dec 23

STAFF CORRESPONDENT

With a view to showcasing the rich cultural heritage of Bangladesh and West Bengal, Tara TV Network, an Indian satellite Bangla channel, is going to organise 'Tara Festival of Bengal' in Delhi from December 23 to December 26, organisers of Tara TV Network announced at a press conference at Jatiya Press Club in the city yesterday.

The festival, first of its kind in Delhi, will represent the spirit of Bengal -- art, culture, cuisine and talents of both Bangladesh and West Bengal.

The festival would showcase six telefilms by young and talented directors, folk music, play reading by prominent personalities and cuisine of Bengal, said Nazneen Azim, country manager of Tara Network.

Lubna Mariam, an eminent Bangladeshi dance artist, said prominent singers from Bangladesh will present Rabindra Sangeet, Nazrul Geeti and folk songs there.

The art, crafts and photography exhibition will be a perfect reflection of exquisite art of the region, the organisers said.

Concert postponed

The Christmas Holiday Concert scheduled for December 21 at Canadian Indian School has been postponed due to unavoidable circumstances, says a press release.

Fresh date of the concert would be announced later.
