hundreds of pictures taken by the noted photojournalist during the Liberation War of Bangladesh in 1971.

This graphic presentation of the most important event in the life of Bangalees is clear evidence of the barbarism of the Pakistan occupation forces while it also upholds proudly the bravery and patriotism of millions of Bangalees that ultimately won freedom of the country.

United Nations Human Rights Mechanism

Qumrunnessa Nazlv Price: Tk 250.00

This is a bilingual handbook on the UN human rights mechanism. The first chapter provides an overview of the subject while several other chapters have incorporated information on other important mechanisms, including treaty bodies and special procedures, introduced by the UN in protection and promotion of human rights. The English part of the handbook also includes three additional write-ups on regional human rights mechanisms, reform process and the Commission on the Status of Women. Besides elaborating how these mechanisms function, the book discusses how national human rights organisations can engage themselves in those systems. Surely, the publication will facilitate participation of national NGOs in the UN human rights forum

Divine Intervention (2002)

Directed by Elia Suleiman

Price: Tk 120.00 Santa Claus tries to outrun a gang of knife-wielding youth. It's one of several vignettes of Palestinian life in Israel - in a neighborhood in Nazareth and at Al-Ram checkpoint in East Jerusalem. Most of the stories are droll, some absurd, one is mythic and fanciful; few words are spoken. A man who goes through his mail methodically each morning has a heart attack. His son visits him in hospital. The son regularly meets a woman at Al-Ram; they sit in a car, hands caressing. Once, she defies Israeli guards at the checkpoint; later, Ninja-like, she takes on soldiers at a target range. A red balloon floats free overhead. Neighbors toss garbage over walls. Life goes on until it doesn't
