Expressions of Interest: Chars Livelihoods Programme
The Chars Livelihoods Programme (CLP), funded by DFID and sponsored by MLGRDC, works in the chars of Sirajgang, Bogra, Gaibanda, Jamalpur and Kurigram. It seeks to promote sustainable livelihoods for poor char dwellers:
CLP's Market Development Fund (MDF) provides opportunities for development organizations and private sector companies to engage directly with CLP's local partner NGOs in sector and service development projects that will generate sustainable employment and production opportunities for poor char dwellers. Small pilot projects of 12 months duration are used to experiment with models for market-based growth and links to the private sector.
The MDF is a challenge fund running in two rounds per year. The CLP is inviting expressions of interest from legally registered organizations and private sector companies with expertise in aquaculture. The chars provide opportunities for small scale fisheries, in particular the development of ponds and dead rivers on a seasonal basis.
Expressions of Interest should explain the organization or company's role in the market, technical capacity and experience with private sector approaches to poverty alleviation. Short-listed applicants will be invited to a Matchmaking Event of the MDF, where they will have an opportunity to meet CLP's partner NGOs and propose pilot projects.
Expressions of Interest should be delivered by courier to:
Market Development Fund
CLP Secretariat
Rural Development Academy (RDA) Campus
Sherpur, Bogra-5842; Post Box No. 47, Bogra.
A detailed brochure can be found on the CLP website www.clp.org.bd Under the Enterprise section.

OMNITRANS INTERNATIONAL LTD.
CA Bhaban, 100 Kazi Nazrul Islam Avenue, Dhaka-1215
Rejoinder
Our attention has been drawn to Hong Kong Dragon Airlines Ltd.'s advertisement on 25 and 26th December 2006 in a number of leading newspaper of Bangladesh to the effect that they have terminated the General Sales Agency of Omnitrans International Ltd. in Bangladesh with immediate effect. In view of the above, Omnitrans International Ltd. wishes to inform all travel agents, cargo agents, suppliers, government authorities and member of public that the above action is illegal and with a malafide intention. Their action has destroyed goodwill and reputation of Omnitrans International Ltd. which it has been enjoying for last 20 years.
This is also to notify, any person/s associated with the above illegal activities will be brought under legal action by the company.
