

LA Chowdhury road unveiled in port city

CITY DESK

The lane between Dewanbazar Didar Market and C&B Bridge in port city has been named after renowned social leader and educationist LA Chowdhury.

Chattogram City Corporation Mayor AJM Nasir Uddin, while inaugurating “LA Chowdhury Shorok”, urged the present generation to follow the ideals of LA Chowdhury and devote themselves to social work and educational activities.

LA Chowdhury was a social leader, educationist, philanthropist and politician. He contributed towards establishing various educational institutions and social organisations.

Former MP Sabiha Musa, Ispahani Public School and College Principal Prof Hasina Zakaria and freedom fighter Abdullah Al Raihan spoke at the event.

money and gold to Wari Police Station and filed two separate cases, one under Special Powers Act and another under Money Laundering Act.

Sarwoer Alam said they filed the cases against Enamul and Rupun and some unidentified people.

The casino brothers came to limelight after law enforces started a drive against casinos in September last year. On September 24, Rab conducted a drive at another house of the brothers in the capital’s Gendaria and recovered Tk 5 crore in cash, eight kgs of gold and six firearms.

They were finally arrested by the Criminal Investigation Department of police on January 13, from a flat in Keraniganj.

A total of seven cases have been filed against Enamul and Rupun and the CID is investigating four of them. The brothers are now in jail.

BNP denied permission

Abul Hassem Bakkar, general secretary of the party’s city unit. At the reception programme, Shahadat also expressed his frustration over the issue.

“AL got permission to hold a similar programme there for its mayoral candidate a few days ago,” he said. He urged the administration and law enforcers not to be “biased”.

Earlier, several hundred BNP activists thronged the station around 2:30pm to receive the mayoral aspirant. Unable to do so, they went back to the party office.

Despite repeated attempts, Mahabubor Rahman, commissioner of Chattogram Metropolitan Police, could not be reached for comments.

Contacted, Abdul Warish, deputy commissioner (special branch) of CMP, said, “We had information that some untoward incident may take place at the event. That’s why we did not give them [BNP] permission to hold the reception programme at the station, considering public safety.”

On February 15, the ruling Awami League nominated Rezaul, joint general secretary of the party’s Chattogram city unit, instead of incumbent mayor AJM Nasir Uddin.

On February 16, the Election Commission announced the schedule for the upcoming CCC elections, slated for March 29.

strengthening the monitoring system for tariff collection.

Talking to reporters, Mozammel said the report was produced so that the ministry concerned could take steps to prevent corruption.

Receiving the report, Khalid Mahmud said steps will be taken after investigating the matters.

AL focuses on unity

However, Nasir along with Rezaul went to Mohiuddin’s house the following day and pledged to work for ensuring victory for Rezaul.

In a bid to create a united front, central AL leaders have already taken their initiative.

As part of that, a closed-door meeting was held at a port city hotel on Sunday evening where AL presidium member Engineer Mosharraf Hossain, AL joint general secretary Hasan Mahmud, organising secretary Ahmed Hossain, finance and planning secretary Wasika Ayesha Khan, and deputy press and publicity secretary Aminul Islam were present, among others.

Nasir and Nowfel were also present at the meeting.

AL sources said the party high command has entrusted Mosharraf with the task of coordinating the AL candidates in CCC polls, scheduled to be held on March 29.

Contacted, AL lawmaker from Chattogram-8 constituency Moslem Uddin Ahmed, who was present at the meeting, said competition for candidacy is normal in a democratic party. “However, once the party decides its candidate, all the leaders become united to ensure his or her victory,” he added.

“At the meeting, all [AL] leaders of Chattogram were present and pledged to work together to ensure our victory,” said Moslem, also president of Chattogram south district unit of AL.

Asked about the meeting, Mosharraf told The Daily Star that the meeting was held to bring the city AL leaders together.

“I have talked to all of them and they have vowed to remain united,” he said, adding, “At the meeting, leaders also emphasised bringing as many voters as possible to the polling centres. I believe, the more voters will show up, the more our chances of winning will increase.”

“People will give their mandate to the AL candidates as the government has implemented many development works,” the AL presidium member said.

Contacted, Khorshed Alam Sujan, vice president of Chattogram city unit of AL who was also present at the meeting, said party leaders also stressed on keeping a single councillor candidate in every ward.

“The party has already nominated councillor candidates in all [41 general and 14 reserved] wards but some are trying to contest as rebel candidates,” he said, adding, “We are trying to convince them otherwise.”

“The central leaders warned that if any party leader vies in polls defying party decision, he or she will be expelled from the party,” he said.

Undying allure

Meanwhile, conversations surrounding Sheba stall were quite lively as well.

“Masud Rana books have it all,” said Aroti Dutta, a school teacher. “Rana is ruthless yet sensitive, and suave with a license to kill,” she said with a smile.

Her husband, Amal Dutta, an accountant, retorted, “May be so... but I still prefer westerns by Qazi Mahbub Hossain.”

In between their lively banter, many others shared their preferences enthusiastically. Most leaned towards Tin Goyenda, some chose translation of English classics while others were undecided amid young adult and thriller genres.

No matter what their preferences are, one thing is certain -- Sheba books will live forever in the hearts of readers and inspire generation after generation. They are after all a perfect reflection of the tag line -- Sheba boi, priyo boi, oboshor-er shongi.
