Summer time singing

Spring brought with it an abundance of good times, but with the recent coronavirus alert, we are almost ready for it to bid us adieu and pave way for the hot summer days ahead. Good times or bad, fashion never tends to leave our inherent selves. It is an essential art form that is worth exploring.

Having said that, Shahrukh Amin, a renowned designer of our country, also agrees with us — “It is the only reason why I was motivated enough to initiate Saree Club. To me, fashion is an essential art-form, where every person should be able to recognise their forte,” said the designer.
