Strike in BUET today to raise scholarship money

By DU Correspondent

Engineering University Central Students Union (EUCSU) has called for a strike at the university tomorrow (Wednesday) to press home demand of enhancement of the amount of money of the scholarships for the students.

The decision was taken at a meeting of EUCSU held Sunday night at the EUCSU building.

The students of the university are now getting an amount of Taka one hundred per month as scholarship.

The university remained closed for three months two years ago following a movement launched by the students demanding enhancement of the amount of scholarship.

Later, the movement was withdrawn following the assurance given by the then Vice-Chancellor Prof Mosharraf Hossain.

Meanwhile, Awami Leaguebacked Bangladesh Chhatra League (S-A) called for a strike today (Tuesday) at the university on the same demand.
