Four killed in mishaps

Four people, including three girls, died in four separate incidents, hospital sources said Monday, reports UNB.

Rickshaw-puller Edris Miah (40) died on the spot when a mini-bus dashed his rickshaw in front of Kakrail mosque in the morning.

His body was brought to Dhaka Medical College Hospital (DMCH) for autopsy.

The driver fled away along with the bus (Dhaka-Cha-599).

Parvin Aktar (15) of village Satarkul in Gulshan area allegedly committed suicide by taking poison.

She died on way to hospital Sunday night, family sources said.

Hasina (16), a maid servant of 14/26 Avaya Das lane, who fell down from the roof of a three-storey building, succumbed to her injuries at DMCH Sunday night.

Relatives took away her body after post-mortem.

Roksana (18), a house wife of Masimpur village in Tongi, was stabbed to death allegedly by her husband Sentu on Sunday over family feud. She died at DMCH early today.

Sentu was reported absconding.

EEC aid for agri development, flood control assured

The visiting European Economic Community (EEC) delegation led by JP Pronk, Minister for Development Cooperation of the Netherlands, had a meeting with Agriculture and Irrigation, Water Development and Flood Control M Majid-Ul Haq at Jatiya Sangsad Bhaban Monday evening, reports BSS.

During the meeting, they discussed on various issues relating to agriculture, irrigation, water development and flood control in Bangladesh. They exchanged views on socio-economic development in the country and matters of mutual interest.

The EEC delegation expressed satisfaction over appropriate and smooth implementation of EEC aided projects in Bangladesh. At present, the Mango Research Centre at Chapainawabganj and some projects of Cotton Development Board under the Ministry of Agriculture are being implemented with the financial assistance of EEC.

The Agriculture Minister stressed for allocation of more EEC fund in cotton development in Bangladesh. Presently only 10 per cent of our total cotton requirement is produced in Bangladesh and for the remaining 90 per cent we are to depend on others. He also underscored the need for help and cooperation from the Dutch government in flood control of Bangladesh.

The visiting ministers assured of every assistance for agriculture development and flood control sector in Bangladesh.
