Mayor of Dhaka City Mirza Abbas Friday called for collective and coordinated endeavours to inculcate Bangladeshi nationalism to save the future generation from the destructive influence of alien culture, reports BSS.

The city father was addressing a function commemorating the 90th birth anniversary of legendary folk singer Abbasuddin Ahmed held at the Shishu Academy under the auspices of Abbasuddin Academy. The function was also addressed by Dr Ashraf Siddiqui, exponent of folk literature and Mostafa Zaman Abbasi, son singer. Begum Lutfunnessa Abbasi, wife of the famed singer, graced the occasion by her presence which was chaired by Sardar Md Sirajuddin, president of the academy.

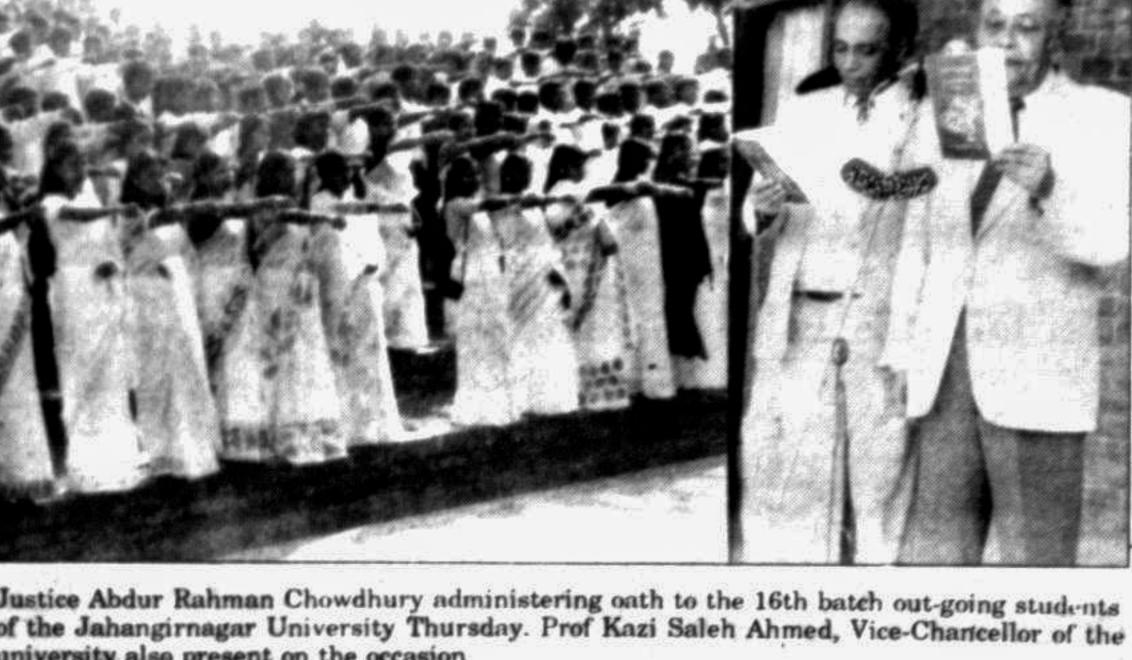

Lauding the role of Abbasuddin in flourishing a 'culture which has its root in the soil, the Mayor said the singer had enriched it giving a new dimension to the distinctive identity of the Bengali Muslims. He said late President Ziaur Rahman in initiating Bangladeshi nationalism might have been influenced by people like Abbasuddin Ahmed and poet Kazi Nazrul Islam.

Dr Siddigui said Abbasuddin through his songs had influ enced the exploited and downtrodden Muslims to rise against injustice and encouraged them to work for occupying their rightful place in the society.

Iqbal thoughts can serve as guideline for education

Allama Igbal could be taken as a guideline for formulating an appropriate education policy for the nation, reports BSS.

This was pleaded by a host of leading educationists and scholars at a seminar on "iqbal's educational philosophy" organised by the Allama lobal Sangsad on the occasion of the 114th birth anniversary of the poet-philosopher.

The speakers said in his philosophy and thoughts on education, Allama Iqbal had stressed the need for the highest possible development of the potentials latent in each human being.

Allama lobal strongly felt that an ideal education system must help the learner to acquire power of original think ing, strength of character, fear of god and the capacity for hard and honest work, the speakers said.

Noted thinker Principal Dewan Mohammed Azraf, who is also the president of the sangsad, presided over the seminar which was addressed, among others, by High Commissioner of Pakistan Anwar Kemal, renowned educationist Dr. Syed Sajjad Hussain, former Chairman of the University Grants Commission Dr. MA Bari, journalist Gias Kamal Chowdhury

The philosophy, and litterateur Shahed Ali and utilise the power in the service thoughts on education of Advocate Mujibur Rahman, of god, Dr Abdullah said. General Secretary of the > sangsad Prof Dr Md Abdullah, a former chairman of the department of Urdu and Persian, of the Dhaka University, read out the key note paper in the seminar.

Dr Abdullah, in his keynote paper said, igbal believed that education must have an aim other than the mere earning of a livelihood and called for reconciliation between commercial, scientific, technical and moral education so that the potentials of a human could be fully realised.

lqbal felt that purpose of education should be to enable a human being to develop infinite powers which one possessed as a gift from god and

Govt considering to give more powers to Press Council

CHITTAGONG, Nov Information Minister Nazmul Huda Thursday said the government was actively considering to give more powers to the Press Council in order to make it more effective, reports BSS. The Minister was exchanging views with local journalists at the Press Club here in the evening. He said the government was considering to make a provision that one would require 10 years, experience of journalism for becoming editors of newspapers while filing declaration. He further said that a system would be introduced for the journalists seeking accreditation cards. Provision will also be kept for cancellation of accreditation cards for any misconduct. Chittagong Press Club President, Ataul Hakim, journalist Moveenul Alam and Chittagong Union of Journalists, General Secretary Anjan Kumar Sen also spoke on the occasion highlighting various problems of journalists. Earlier, the Information Minister visited the proposed site of a Television Sub-centre in Chittagong. He also visited Chittagong station of Radio Bangladesh at Agrabad and attended a cultural function there in the evening.

Information Minister Nazmul Huda said the present government would always stand by the distressed people and make all-out efforts to improve their lot with the limited resources at its disposal. He said that the govern-

The teachers, thought, had to be men of character to discharge their responsibilities and a teacher who lacked idealism could by no means inspire his pupils to develop character. Morality, therefore, must play in important part in education on cither side.

Dr. Abdullah pointed out that lqbal felt faith in god must form part of the system of morality that pupil imbibes. The person who has had faith implanted in him would be able to withstand exposure to western education without risk and this should be the foundation of all educational planning.

Kemal Anwar said poetphilosopher Iqbal was a mighty awakener of the Muslim ummah at a time of unprecedented adversity.

Kemal said Allama Igbal advocated the unity of the ummah on the basis of Islamic teachings and the poet philosopher mighty contributed to our awareness of all issues of concern to the Muslims at large. Gias Kamal Chowdhury
