BTMC loss records a staggering rise

The net loss incurred by Bangladesh Textile Mills Corporation (BTMC) recorded a staggering rise in the first 10 months of fiscal 1990-91 - stx times higher than the amount in the corresponding period of fiscal 1989-90

As of April 1991, the net deficit of BTMC stood at Taka 54.52 erore, according to an official source. The amount was only Taka 9.47 crore in July-April of the last fiscal year.

Increase in the price of raw cotton, currency devaluation, imposition of import duty and additional benefits in the form of Dearness Allowance (DA) are cited as reasons for the "unusual rise" in the net loss incurred by BTMC.

The international market price of raw cotton increased by an average of 20 per cent over that of the last year. The Corporation thus had to spend extra resources to procure raw cotton for its yarn mills, the source said. Currency devaluation and the imposition of a five per cent import duty also added to the enhanced expenses. BTMC also had to bear the additional expenditure of giving a 10 per cent dearness

Explaining the reasons for this, the Survey report points out that the propensity of the entrepreneurs to retain their absolute control over their enterprises and thereby avoid public exposure of the economic state of affairs of those companies is the basic factor responsible for a very small corporate sector.
