Newsman injured in road mishap

A Bangladeshi journalist working in America, his wife and father were injured seriously when their microbus tumbled into a ditch from the Bogra-Dinajpur highway Monday, family sources in Dhaka said, reports UNB.

Ashrafal Islam (45) Director-Producer of the New York-based Bengali Radio Service (Padmar Dheu), his wife Selima Akhter (40) and father Hazi Mohsin Ali (70) were rushed to the Bogra Hospital with serious wounds.

The accident occurred when the driver lost control over the steering near Gobindganj. They were going to Nilphamari.

Afzal Hossain, General Secretary of the Samity said this at a press conference in a local hotel in Dhaka on Monday.

Chaired by Habibur Rahman, President of the Samity, the press conference was also attended, among others, by Assistant Vice-Presidents

Timber consumption to rise by 75m cubic feet

Bangladesh Timber Traders and Saw Mill Owners' Samity has threatened to launch a movement if the government fails to fulfil their five-point demand immediately, reports UNB.

Afzal Hossain, General Secretary of the Samity said this at a press conference in a local hotel in Dhaka on Monday.

Chaired by Habibur Rahman, President of the Samity, the press conference was also attended, among others, by Assistant Vice-Presidents

Helaluddin and Abul Kaseem.

Their demands include exemption of tax on import and selling of timbers, stoppage of timber smuggling and creation of opportunity for afforestation in the private sector.

The government have imposed 40 per cent tax on import of timber, which Afzal said would affect construction works in the country adversely.

Referring to imposition of Value Added Tax (VAT), Afzal said this would seriously affect about 10 million people involved directly or indirectly with timber trade.

He feared that the timber consumption in the construction sector would increase by 75 million cubic feet by the year 2000 hastening environmental degradation.

Afzal demanded inclusion of timber traders in government's afforestation programmes in coastal areas and fallow lands.

The government lost revenue worth about Tk 300 crore during the last two years due to unauthorised felling of trees.

Indian cargo ships ply in Bangladesh

Indian cargo ships ply in the Bangladesh territory under "the protocol on inland water transit and trade", signed between Bangladesh and India, Shipping Minister MK Anwar told the Jatiya Sangsad Monday, reports BSS.

Replying a question from Mostafa Rashidi Shuja (AL-Khulna), Shipping Minister said Indian ships can not anchor in the Bangladesh ports excepting Sheikh-Bari, Khulna, Barisal, Chandpur, Sirajganj, Bahadurabad, Chittlari, Narayanganj, Bhairab Bazar, Ajmiriganj, Markul, Sherpur, Fenchuganj and Zakiganj. Indian ships can anchor in these river ports for unloading goods, re-fuelling and by buying essentials, he said.

The Minister said the Indian government mainly bears the expenses of maintenance of navigability of the routes they use.

He said approved ships ply on eight protocol routes in both the countries.

Rule to regulate ad on breast milk substitute soon

A Draft Rule Under Section 11 of the "Breast Milk Substitute (Regulation and Marketing), Amendment Act, 1990", is being prepared to enforce the law to regulate advertisement of breast milk substitutes.

Health and Family Welfare Minister Chowdhury Kamal Ibne Yusuf told the Jatiya Sangsad Monday that the act prohibits making, exhibition, distribution; circulation and open display of advertisements of breast milk substitute which might create impression that substitute was equal to breast milk.

Replying to a question from Col (Retd) Sawkat Ali (AL-Sariatpur), the Minister said the act would be enforced after the gazette notification of the rule.

He also informed the House that an "advisory committee" was formed to extend cooperation to the government in this regard.
