DU campus tense as polls campaign gathers heat

By Staff Correspondent
No student organisation of the Dhaka University has yet been able to finalise their slate of candidates with the DUCSU elections only two weeks away. The corridors of the Arts and Science faculties of the Dhaka University campus reverberated with slogans and speeches on Tuesday, often provocative, but no violence was reported. All the major student organisations including the Pro-BNP Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD), Awami League-backed Bangladesh Chhatra League (S-A), JSD (Inu)-backed BCL (N-S), CPB-supported Bangladesh Chhatra Union (BCU) and BKSAL-backed Jatiya Chhatra League (JCL) continued holding rallies and processions seeking support in the July 31 DUCSU and hall union polls. But fear of fresh trouble on the campus over polls campaign is yet to be removed. With the identified terrorists including the suspected killers of Dr Milan still active on the campus, some students feared more violence. Besides holding rallies at the Faculty buildings the students bodies were also regularly carrying out campaigns at the residential halls. JCD, which has decided to go into the polls battle alone continued distribution of party nomination papers among the willing candidates till Tuesday. A final list of candidates for the DUCSU and 14 hall union seats will be made public soon. JCD sources said. BCL (S-A) was also distributing party nomination forms. The BCL (S-A) leaders also consulting with the leaders of JCL, BCU, Chhatra Moitri and Chhatra Front for an electoral alliance. A electoral alliance of the left-leaning student bodies was also under discussion. The Five-Party-backed student bodies and some of the student fronts of the Eight-Party may be taken in the alliance. The DU authorities published draft voters' list at the residential halls Monday. Final list of voters will be announced today (Wednesday) at 4 pm at the halls. On July 30 at 4 pm, a supplementary voters' list would also be published. The hall authorities Tuesday started distributing nomination papers for the DUCSU and hall union elections. It will continue till July 20 and those would be scrutinised on the same day. But most of the candidates are yet to collect the nomination papers. Protest against exams Some examinees of Degree (Honours) final year brought out a procession from the TSC protesting holding of their examinations and the polls at the same time. The examinations begin today and would continue after the polls. The examinees a later marched up to the Vice-Chancellor's office where they submitted a memorandum to the VC in this connection. JCL at a rally in front of the Madhu's Canteen Tuesday called upon all concerned to resist all conspiracies against holding the DUCSU polls. Addressing the rally Pankaj Nath and Rezaurul Karim said free movement of some unwanted elements expelled from the DU and armed miscreants may cause recurrence of violence which may affect the polls. They demanded immediate arrest of those persons. DU VC's call Vice-Chancellor Prof M Maniruzzaman Miah called upon the students to launch a movement to eliminate terrorism from the campus. Addressing the freshers of four departments under the Commerce Faculty, he said 28,000 students of the university could never be hostage in the hands of a few terrorists. Held at the TSC auditorium, the freshers' reception function was chaired by Meherunnessa, Acting Director of the Students Counselling Centre of TSC. Pro-VC Prof Wakil Ahmed, Commerce Faculty Dean ABM Khalid, Prof Syed Abul Kalam Azad, Prof Zoinul Islam, Prof Shahjahan Mia also addressed the function.

Food pilferage, wastage to be dealt with sternly

State Minister for Food Nazmul Huda Wednesday categorically said that immediate stern measures would be taken against the dishonest officials involved in any type of corruption and malpractices in food storage and its management, reports BSS. He said food pilferage and wastage in the food godowns would have to be stopped with iron hand and the concerned officials would have to perform their responsibilities with utmost sincerity and honesty in this regard. The State Minister said this while he was addressing the CSD managers, district and regional controllers of the food department at Khaddya Bhaban auditorium in Dhaka. Huda said the past autocratic regime during its nine years of misrule introduced corruption and malpractices in every sphere of social life as well as in the administration ignoring the welfare of the common people. He said the BNP government would uproot corruption and remove all sorts of malpractices from the administration for the greater interest of the nation and overall development of the country. The State Minister said without weeding out corruption and malpractices welfare of the common people would not be ensured and the country could not achieve the desired result of development. In the regard, he called upon the food officials of play their responsive role. Huda directed the district level food officials to maintain highest discipline and strict supervision of their subordinate offices to check any irregularities. Food Secretary Ataul Huq, Director General of Food Mahe Alam and senior officials of the Ministry were present.

AL student front creates reign of terror : Talukder

BNP Secretary General and LGRD Minister Abdus Salam Talukder has said the BNP government was committed to ensure congenial atmosphere in educational arena by eradicating violence and terrorism, reports BSS. In a statement issued in Dhaka Tuesday the BNP leader dispelled the allegations of Awami League Chief Sheikh Hasina that present government was indulging in what she said oppression against the opposition including Awami League and Chhatra League. She raised the allegation at a workers' rally at Gopalganj Circuit House Monday, it said. Talukder also rejected the allegation by the AL that campus vandalism could not be stopped due to lack of sincerity of the government. He said to stop campus violence the government had already taken a number of realistic measures. Besides, other necessary steps would be taken in future, he added. In this connection the BNP Secretary General referred to the grand conference of all political parties held at the International Conference Centre on July 12 to find out ways and means to stop campus violence. Talukder said, it was regrettable that the leader who raised allegation against the government for campus violence did not personally attend the July 12 conference. Moreover her student front on the following day, created a reign of terror by attacking a scheduled rally of the Tejgaon College branch of Jatiyatabadi Chhatra Dal (JCD). He said, earlier the student front of Awami League had created a reign of terror in various educational institution of the country including Dhaka University, Dhaka Polytechnic Institute, Mirpur Bangla College, Pabna Edward College, Chandpur College and other institutes of Sylhet, Netrakona and in other areas of the country. The BNP Secretary General further said, today it had become clear to the nation who were creating violence on the campuses and who had lack of sincerity to stop vandalism from campus. Even last night when the police raided SM Hall of Dhaka University on the basis of a report that the killers of Dr Milan took shelter there, the student front of Awami League come out on the streets protesting police action and set fire on a number of vehicles on the Dhaka University campus.
