DMC inherits Tk 138cr debt

City Mayor Mirza Abbas said due to corrupt practices by the past government, Dhaka Municipal Corporation (DMC) inherited a burden of Tk 138 crore in debt when the autocratic government stepped down, reports BSS.

He said when power was snatched away from BNP in 1982, the DMC had a surplus fund of Tk 66 crore.

He was speaking at the bi-annual conference of Kotwali Thana Unit of Bangladesh Nationalist Party (BNP) held at the Siddique Bazar Community Centre in the old city.

Among others, State Minister for Sports and Youth, Sadek Hossain Khoka, General Secretary of Kotwali Thana Unit of BNP, Abu Mohammad Mainuddin, Vice-President M Shahjahan, and former Chairman of Ward No 33 Advocate Yakub Ali.

Kotwali Thana BNP President Alhaj M Siraj Presided.

Mirza Abbas expressed the hope that it would be possible to overcome the burden within one year by increasing income through stopping corrupt practices.

Quoting an example, he said this year Tk 46 lakh was earned against Tk 22 lakh last year by leasing out the cattle markets in the DMC area during Eid-ul Azha. He said this was possible as the markets were leased out this time through proper tender instead of yielding to any pressure or negotiations.

Urging the city dwellers to clear their municipal taxes, Mirza Abbas said if the tax payers were sincere in their statements, they would not be losers. He said adequate provisions were there to make justice to them.

He asked the tax payers not to bribe any officer or employee of the DMC and said if any one in the DMC could be found indulging in corrupt practices, strong action would be taken against him.

Referring to the alleged conspiracies hatched by some political party to unseat the government, he said BNP would resist it by all means. He urged the workers to remain vigilant and prepared to face any danger that might come.

He alleged that Awami League was encouraging terrorism and creating violence on the campus to discredit the government.

Sadek Hossain Khoka urged the guardians to come forward in maintaining congenial atmosphere in the society. He said in the past, they used to settle local disputes and maintain law and order through "Panchayet" system.

AM Mainuddin suggested revival of "Panchayet" system in the old city area to eradicate terrorism. He urged to take strong action by the law enforcement agencies in cooperation with the local people to destroy the dens of heroin addicts.

Advocate Yakub Ali demanded improvement of water supply and drainage system in the old city especially in the Kotwali Thana area as well as development of educational institutions to meet the increased needs.

Earlier, the conference recalled the memory of shaheed Monwar Hossain, a BNP worker, who was killed during the movement against the autocratic government.
