Ctg BNP divided over Khasru's nomination

From Our Staff Correspondent

CHITTAGONG, August 20: BNP leaders and workers in Chittagong are divided over the nomination of Amir Khasru Mahmud Chowdhury for the bye-election in the Chittagong-8 constituency to be held on September 11.
The BNP leaders and workers opposing the nomination of Amir Khasru have called upon the Prime Minister Begum Khaleda Zia to nominate either Zahiruddin Khan or Ekramul Huq for the Chittagong-8 constituency by cancelling Khasru's nomination.
The dissident leaders at a press meet held at the Chittagong Press Club Tuesday afternoon announced a dawn-to-dusk hunger strike on Wednesday in front of Alankar Cinema Hall at Pahartali to press the demand for nomination of a candidate of their choice.
The dissident leaders also led a procession of about 5,000 party workers on trucks and minibuses around the city voicing their resentment over the nomination of Amir Khasru.
They also demonstrated midnight Monday protesting the nomination.
They called for fielding a man of their choice saying "We voted for Begum Zia but we won't vote for Khasru". The leaders also threatened to stop all communication between Chittagong and other districts.
The dissident leaders included Shamsul Alam, President, Pahartali BNP, Kazi Akbar, Organising Secretary, Chittagong City BNP, Shahadat Selim, General Secretary, Bandar BNP and others.

Legal steps to be taken to reopen Bangladesh Match Co

KHULNA, Aug 20: Deputy Speaker of the Jatiya Sangsad Sheikh Razzak Ali today said that in order to alleviate the prolonged sufferings of the workers, all legal and appropriate steps, would be taken to help reopen the Bangladesh Match Company (BMC) of Khulna which was closed down by its owner Isphahani Group about a year back, reports BSS.
The Deputy Speaker, was addressing the workers and employees of the company here at the factory premises.
He directed the Joint Director of Labour, Khulna Division to take up the case with the Ministry of Industry for this purpose if "the management authority would fail to reopen the factory or to pay the arrears of the workers within the next seven days."
Sheikh Razzak Ali further assured the factory workers that Khulna district administration would provide them with some sorts of relief materials to mitigate their sufferings for the time being.

Mayor of Khulna City Corporation Sheikh Taibur Rahman, BMC union and local BNP leaders also spoke on the occasion.
The fate of about two thousand workers and employees of BMC Khulna has become uncertain due to the closure of the factory by its private management authority, since last September.
Earlier, the Deputy Speaker addressing the teachers and students of Khulna Art College at the college gallery said that it was indispensable to develop and expand the arena of country's fine arts and crafts so as to sustain the national identity and existence.
Ashraf Hossain
Another reports adds: Jatiya Sangsad Whip Md Ashraf Hossain today underscored the need for performing the duties of administrative authority and workers' leaders consciously to resolve the existing problems of jute industries, reports BSS.
He was speaking as the chief guest at a meeting of BMC project and workers' leaders at the conference hall of BMC Khulna zone.
The Whip said there were many problems from a jute grower to jute goods export process in the country which should be solved immediately for the national economic emancipation.
He also laid stress on setting up of a research establishment to properly identify these problems and its solution in order to promote jute industries.
He called upon the concerned authority to establish a research institute for the welfare of the workers.
