One robbed of gold ornaments in city

By Staff Correspondent

One Wahiduzzaman was robbed of two and a half tolas of gold ornaments and a cash amount of Taka 1000 Monday evening near Shahbagh in front of the police forces.

Wahiduzzaman was carrying the ornaments of his wife and cash taka in the bag while he was travelling on a rickshaw along with his wife and daughter from Naya Paltan, Azimpur to Malibagh to attend a family function.

He could not reach the destination carrying the ornaments as the bag was snatched away by the hijackers in front of police near Shahbagh. Wahiduzzaman along with his wife came to the National Press Club Tuesday evening and told the story to the journalists. He said that the police played a silent role and they did not try to arrest the hijackers who came on a baby taxi from opposite direction.
